Miraculous Survival After a Head-On Collision

Brother Richard, who is from the United Kingdom, visited his hometown, Nigeria. He found himself at a pivotal moment of destiny when his brother ushered him into the realm of Prophet Uebert Angel's teachings, miracles, signs and wonders.

Brother Richard was captivated, and upon his return to the United Kingdom, found himself at the doorstep of Spirit Embassy.

A routine delivery job in March 2022 took a harrowing turn as brother Richard's life hung in the balance on a quiet country road. A sudden head on collision shattered his world, plunging him into darkness and unconsciousness.

Lost in a cloud of confusion, brother Richard found himself overcome in a disorienting void of darkness, unaware of his surroundings and lacking a sense of place or direction. When he regained awareness, a scene of chaos unfolded before him—fire services, paramedics, and concerned onlookers surrounded him in shock.

In that moment, brother Richard found himself numb to pain, only to be suddenly engulfed by a wave of excruciating agony. Paralysed and immobilised, his limbs rendered motionless, he could only rely on his voice to communicate. Despite the temptation to give up, the realisation of surviving the accident filled brother Richard with deep gratitude towards God. As the reality of his predicament eventually set in, he waited as the fire services cut through the metal and freed him from his trapped vehicle.

It took him several days to regain full consciousness. Confused about the events, he created imaginary scenarios to explain the unknown circumstances surrounding his accident. His gratitude towards God deepened, recognising the life saving protection of his cherished GoodNewsWorld wristband which is a conduit of the anointing. An important part of him, the wristband never leaves his side, accompanying him through every moment, including while he is asleep or bathing.

In the hospital, brother Richard was helpless, his body bearing severe injuries to the head, legs, and arms. Enduring intense pain, he found himself in a state of vulnerability and dependency on medical care. Amidst the persistent pain and lack of improvement, a glimmer of hope emerged as brother Richard received news about the Healing Institute session scheduled for the month of April in the United Kingdom. Filled with excitement, his countenance shifted as he immediately registered for the upcoming healing session: his healing was here.

Prophet Uebert Angel carries an atmosphere for healing, and while brother Richard was in that very environment a transformation had already begun to take place. He felt surges of sensations in his body, alleviating stiffness in his neck and easing the excruciating pain.

As the Prophet laid his hands on brother Richard, he felt an instantaneous release in his neck, and the excruciating pain was a distant memory in that moment. This was truly a manifestation of the Word of God and raw healing power of God that is working through His vessel, Prophet Uebert Angel.

To this day, brother Richard remains pain free, able to engage in activities without any limitations. He is truly enjoying divine health as the Word of God promises. He is free for free. Glory to God.

Brother Richard expresses his profound gratitude and heartfelt thanks to the Prophet for the miraculous life transforming encounter that changed his life forever.

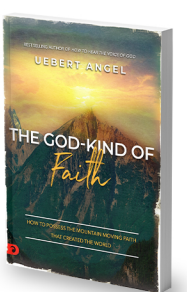

Baby Yamikani Raised From The Dead

In Harare, Zimbabwe, Deaconess Shammah and her healthy daughter, baby Yamikani enjoyed a day at the Iconic Harare Hippodrome. As the Prophet, Prophet Uebert Angel walked past baby Yamikani, he made a comment that caught the attention of her mother, “I don’t like it when bad things happen to children.” As he carried on past, his remark made no sense to Deaconess Shammah and left her with a whirlwind of emotion. The next day dawned, and baby Yamikani appeared to be in good health, free from any form of sickness. However, as the day went by as usual, a troubling report reached the mother - baby Yamikani was battling a high temperature. Remaining calm, the mother swiftly took charge of the situation. Assessing the fever as a minor setback, she relayed instructions to the child minder, outlining simple yet effective home remedies to alleviate Yamikani's discomfort and bring down the elevated temperature.

As bedtime approached, the child minder prepared to give baby Yamikani medication to ensure a restful night's sleep. Momentarily leaving the baby in the care of other children in the house, she hurried to attend to the medication. Upon her return, a scene of chaos greeted the child minder. The once calm atmosphere had been replaced with frantic cries and screams from the other children. Something had gone terribly wrong in her brief absence, plunging the night into turmoil. Immediately, she made a call to the mother. The pandemonium in the background spoke volumes, sending shivers of dread down the mother's spine. The urgency in the child minder's voice hinted at a crisis unfolding, propelling the mother into a state of anxious uncertainty.

The journey back to the house where baby Yamikani was, was a wild rollercoaster of emotions for the parents. Each passing moment was weighed down by an unbearable heaviness of dread and despair. Upon reaching home, the devastating news awaited them, their beloved child had passed away. The sight of Yamikani lying motionless on the bed sent shockwaves of disbelief and agony through the shattered hearts of the parents, leaving them unexplainable grief. In that harrowing moment, all they could do was surrender to the overwhelming tide of anguish, wailing and sobbing uncontrollably.

In a moment, a glimmer of hope emerged. Driven by desperation and clinging to the last remaining faith they had, they made a decision to call the man of God, Prophet Uebert Angel. With trembling hands and tear-stained faces, they reached for the phone and dialed the number of the Prophet. At this point, it was late at night and the parents had no expectation that their phone call would be answered. To their astonishment, the Prophet answered the call, and upon learning of the heart-wrenching news, he chastised the parents with urgency. His words cut through their sorrow, commanding them to cease their mourning and instead, to utilise that moment by faith and speak life to baby Yamikani. The Prophet further instructed the parents to take the lifeless child to the hospital. Despite the odds stacked against them, the parents clung to the Prophet's words as their lifeline.

Upon arriving at the hospital, the doctors, in their examination, confirmed the grim truth - there was no pulse in the tiny frame of the child, she was pronounced dead. As the doctors took charge of the lifeless child, a sudden shift in the atmosphere occurred as Prophet Uebert Angel arrived. With no time wasted, the Prophet requested to be led to the room where the child lay, his faith unwavering in the face of despair.

In the hushed stillness that enveloped the waiting area outside the room, a miraculous symphony unfolded within the walls of the hospital. In a breathtaking moment that defied all logic and reason, a piercing cry shattered the silence, echoing with the unmistakable sound of life once more. The once lifeless baby Yamikani was alive again, a testament to the healing power of God that is at work through His Prophet, Prophet Uebert Angel. A divine intervention beyond all human understanding had occurred.

In a miraculous turn of events, Prophet Uebert Angel's arrival sparked a resurrection miracle. Baby Yamikani, once lifeless, cried out in renewed life. The family rejoiced as complete restoration unfolded, and the doctors marvelled at the miraculous transformation. Baby Yamikani, raised to life again, became a living testimony to the divine healing power of God.

Deaconess Shammah and Deacon Deon are eternally thankful to the man of God for bringing their baby daughter, Yamikani, back to life. Their lives brim with joy, and they have recently welcomed new additions to their family.

The diagnosis felt like a death sentence. The doctors estimated that Anil had only three to five years to live.

Brother Anil Philip, a resident of Hyderabad, India, battled severe migraines and headaches daily for over a decade, relying on painkillers to function at work. His condition worsened, prompting him to seek medical help, where he was diagnosed with high blood pressure. Despite being prescribed medication for both morning and evening, his headaches persisted, casting a shadow over his life from 2010 until 2023.

By early 2023, Anil's migraines and headaches intensified, despite the increased medication dosage prescribed by his doctors.

Traditional and alternative medicines failed to provide relief, leading the doctors to declare that he would have to live with his condition. Painkillers offered only short-lived relief, and Anil's social life suffered as he avoided gatherings, knowing that any trigger could set off a migraine. His sensitivity to sound and light isolated him from his family, affecting his relationship with his children and turning him into a short-tempered person.

Anil's struggle continued as the doctors sought the root cause of his high blood pressure. An MRI scan of his adrenal glands revealed a tumour on his left adrenal gland. The initial plan to remove the tumour through surgery was halted when further tests showed abnormally high levels of 3-methoxytyramine, a marker that suggested a more serious condition. The subsequent J PET CT scan confirmed their worst fears: Anil had cancer.

The diagnosis felt like a death sentence. The doctors estimated that Anil had only three to five years to live. The news devastated him as he thought about his beautiful family—his wife, his 12-year-old son, and his 6-year-old daughter. As the sole breadwinner, the prospect of leaving his family filled him with sorrow. The oncologist explained the high-risk nature of the surgery, emphasizing the need for a cardiologist, endocrinologist, and oncologist to be present due to the procedure's complexity.

Despite the dire prognosis, Anil sought the Lord's guidance before proceeding with the surgery. He remembered the Bible verse Matthew 7:7: "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you." In 2019, Anil had heard about Prophet Uebert Angel through his brother-in-law, who described him as a forensic prophet.

Intrigued, Anil began following Prophet Uebert Angel's teachings, watching his messages every Sunday, and listening to his sermons during his commutes. As he prepared for the surgery, Anil felt a strong desire to seek the Lord's guidance, despite being in Hyderabad India and Prophet Uebert Angel being in London.

One night, around 3 AM IST, Anil had a powerful dream. In the dream, he felt as if he were coming out of anaesthesia, waking from a deep sleep.

He remembered the Bible verse, "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you."

(Mathew 7:7)

He saw Prophet Uebert Angel dressed in white medical attire, like a doctor in an operating room. The Prophet, hurrying to his next surgery, paused to tell Anil, "I have dealt with you; you will be fine." The dream felt incredibly real, and Anil woke up knowing that something miraculous had happened. Waking up, Anil immediately shared the dream with his wife, who was sleeping beside him. "Wake up, wake up! I went through surgery," he told her. She reminded him that the surgery was yet to come, but Anil insisted, "No, no, Prophet just operated on me, and he said it is all well." Together, they praised the Lord that morning, feeling a profound change within him.

The next day, Anil informed the doctors that he was ready for the surgery. Despite their warnings about the surgery's complications, he felt confident and assured. After his encounter with Prophet Uebert Angel, Anil knew the cancer was gone. He couldn't explain this to the doctors, so he simply told them he was ready.

Two days later, Anil underwent the surgery. When he woke up, his blood pressure was 120/80—the first normal reading in 13 years. Repeated tests over the next few days confirmed that his blood pressure remained normal. Post-surgery tests and a biopsy revealed an even more astounding result: there was no trace of cancer.

The doctors were astounded by the miraculous turn of events. They reviewed Anil's reports multiple times before finally concluding that he was completely free of cancer. It has been over a year since the surgery, and Anil has not needed to see a doctor or take any medication. He is living a normal, blessed life, enjoying his family, and traveling freely. Anil encourages everyone to stay connected to the ministry of Prophet Uebert Angel. Despite being in Hyderabad, God used the Prophet to reach Anil and heal him.

Anil is profoundly grateful for Prophet Uebert Angel's life and ministry, recognizing the divine intervention that saved his life. His story is a testament to the power of faith and the incredible work being done under the unction of Prophet Uebert Angel. Anil's story is a beacon of hope for all who seek divine intervention in their lives.

Thank you, Prophet Uebert Angel. From the depths of his heart, Anil is eternally grateful for your prayers and the work God is doing through you.

The doctors were astounded by the miraculous turn of events. They reviewed Anil's reports multiple times before finally concluding that he was completely free of cancer.

Harare, Zimbabwe

Brother Kudakwashe, originally from Chishawasha, starts his story in Harare, Zimbabwe, where his life unfolded into a life transforming encounter that changed his destiny forever.

Brother Kudakwashe was imprisoned for theft of electricity cables, resulting in a 10-year prison term. His life took an unexpected turn. Initially sentenced to a decade behind bars, his sentence was reduced to 6 years and 8 months. During his imprisonment, having served 5 years already, something extraordinary happened. On April 20, 2024, under the unction of Prophet Uebert Angel, the Healing Institute team in Harare visited Harare Central Prison. They distributed copies of the Divine Health Affirmations booklet, the Healing magazine, and essential items to all the inmates, including Brother Kudakwashe. Little did he know, encountering these transformative materials would become the cornerstone of a life-altering miracle. The very next day, on April 21, unbeknown to Brother Kudakwashe, he was miraculously selected for presidential amnesty, leading to his early release from prison without serving his full term. The news of his unexpected freedom felt like a God sent miracle. Overwhelmed and grateful, he realised that this was not a mere coincidence but a manifestation of God's grace and love, a result of the encounter with the Healing Institute on the day they visited him. Upon his release, Brother Kudakwashe returned home to emptiness, a shattered life with no family, no job, nothing and no one to rely on. However, he felt a profound pull towards God, knowing that the only explanation for his sudden release was the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ. He immediately joined Spirit Embassy – The Good News Church, where hopeless situations are turned around instantly. It was more than a place of worship for him; it was a family. He was warmly welcomed into Spirit Embassy with overwhelming love.

The trajectory of brother Kudakwashe's life has been completely transformed, a testament to the Word of God taught by Prophet Uebert Angel. He honours the Prophet for answering the call of God upon his life, leading to a supernatural encounter that forever changed Brother Kudakwashe's life. Now, he thrives in a life brimming with joy and freedom. Praise be to the Lord for his remarkable transformation.

Gweru, Zimbabwe

In April 2024, the power of God was manifested at Whawha Prison in Gweru, Zimbabwe. Under the divine mandate of our Man of God, the Highly Esteemed Prophet Uebert Angel, the Healing Institute team visited the prison. They generously donated essential care items, Healing magazines, and Divine Health Affirmation booklets to the inmates. The team was given an opportunity to share the Word of God to the inmates and prison guards. During this time, something truly extraordinary transpired, a total of 51 inmates accepted Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour. Glory be to God.

Within a week of the visit, the supernatural happened. Several of the newly converted inmates were unexpectedly released. This miraculous event occurred before they completed their sentences, all thanks to the transformative GoodNews they encountered. This serves as a powerful demonstration of the divine impact being made by coming in contact the Healing Institute materials and the significant influence of our revered Man of God, Prophet Uebert Angel.

The former inmates, now members of Spirit Embassy Gweru, have encountered the indescribable power of God, and their lives are forever changed. Praise the Lord!

Divine Health Affirmations

by Prophet Uebert Angel

I am divinely inoculated against every sickness and disease. HIV cannot find a home in my blood. Malaria and fever cannot stay in me. Harmful bacteria and viruses cannot multiply in my blood, because the life of Jesus is flowing through me.

The Holy Spirit abides in me and comforts me in every situation. Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for the Lord God is with me. Thank you Father for your Word, and for sending the Holy Spirit to abide in me and with me. Amen.

"Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." (Psalms 23:4)

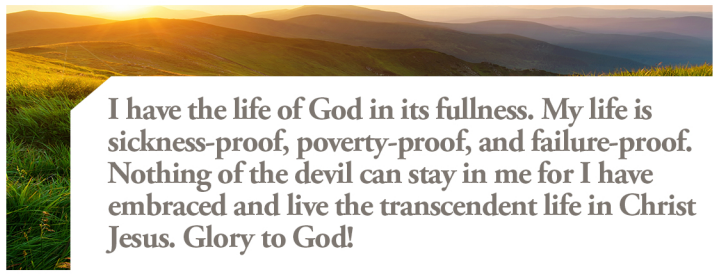

The Holy Spirit that dwells in me quickens my mortal body. I spring forth in perfect health always. My heart functions perfectly. My brain functions perfectly. My kidneys, lungs, and everything concerning me functions perfectly in Jesus' name! Hallelujah.

"But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you." (Romans 8:11)

I am a carrier of the Word of God. Greater is He that is in me than he that is in the world. I shall not be defeated by chronic headaches, migraines, or sinus infections. I end them now in the name of Jesus!

"Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world." (1 John 4:4)

The Lord Jesus is my healer. He takes pleasure in healing me. I walk in this reality and truth for my life. Today I choose to praise Him and give Him thanks for He is my strength and my shield.
"The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: Therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him." (Psalm 28:7)

I have the life of God in its fullness. My life is sickness-proof, poverty-proof, and failure-proof. Nothing of the devil can stay in me for I have embraced and live the transcendent life in Christ Jesus. Glory to God!

I have entered God's rest and ceased all struggles because the Lord Jesus has overcome the adversary and every contrary situation. I am fortified daily by the Word of God, and I refuse to surrender to sickness, disease, or any form of darkness in Jesus' name.

I decree and declare, this year the Lord has cancelled my appointment with death. Any plan of the enemy to end my life is destroyed. It will not stand, neither shall it come to pass in the Mighty name of Jesus! "Thus saith the Lord GOD, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass." (Isaiah 7:7)

I no longer suffer from any affliction. Cancer, diabetes, fibroids, and all other diseases went to the cross with Jesus Christ as He bore it all for me to be in perfect health today. Today is the last day I will be sick. I am strong and I have been made whole. Glory to God!

Barrenness is eliminated in my life. Miscarriages are destroyed and banned from happening. My body is fruitful and fertile for reproduction. Any hindrance in my way is removed in the name of Jesus!

I Am A walking, talking powerhouse. By my words, the spirit of affliction causing deafness and dumbness is demolished. I command my ears to open, my vocal cords to open. From today, my hearing is perfect, my speech is perfect in the Mighty name of Jesus! Hallelujah!

By the power and authority of the Holy Spirit, I put an embargo on the plan of the enemy over my eyesight. I refuse any form of blindness, or any form of infirmity that causes blindness. My eyesight is perfect. It is exactly how God intended it to be.

I am not ordinary. As the Father has life in Himself, even so, has He given me His life that is without limits. I function with supernatural strength and ability today in Jesus' name!

"For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;" (John 5:26)

My words are sharper than any two edged sword. They carry power to remove affliction, sickness and disease. Right now, I cast out any skin disease, skin condition, or discomfort trying to attach itself to my body. It shall never return in the name of Jesus!

"For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart." (Hebrews 4:12)

A Triumph of Faith

Sister Felician Campbell's Journey from Barrenness to Blessing

For fifteen long years, Felician's life was a barren desert. But amidst this desolation, a flicker of hope remained.

In a town in England, where the whispers of miracles seldom echoed, lived Sister Felician Campbell. Her life was a testament to unwavering faith and the boundless power of grace. After her marriage, Felician eagerly awaited the joy of motherhood. Yet, as months turned into years, the anticipation turned into silent sorrow. The expected signs of life within her womb never appeared, and hope began to wane.

Doctors, with their clinical precision, diagnosed her with "poor ovaries" on the left side, a condition they declared irreversible. Even with the means to explore alternative medical interventions, specialists confirmed the grim prognosis: Felician could never bear children.

This verdict was not just a medical sentence but a heavy burden on her spirit. The label of barrenness clung to her, a mark of shame in a society that equated womanhood with motherhood.

Despite her husband's unwavering support, Felician felt the sting of society's harsh judgments. Family and friends, once close, now kept their distance, some even mocking her plight. The weight of their scorn drove her into isolation. Her once vibrant presence faded, replaced by a shadow of her former self, as the emotional and psychological toll manifested physically; she lost weight dramatically, her vitality drained by despair.

For fifteen long years, Felician's life was a barren desert. But amidst this desolation, a flicker of hope remained. It was on a seemingly ordinary day that she encountered the extraordinary grace of the Highly Esteemed man of God, Prophet Uebert Angel. Attending a church service at Spirit Embassy London, Felician's only contact with the Prophet was a simple handshake. Yet, that moment was anything but ordinary.

She placed her hand, now imbued with the Prophet's anointing, on her belly and felt a surge of power. In that instant, she knew her miracle had begun.

Two weeks later, as she slept, Prophet Angel appeared to her in a vision, declaring with divine precision that she was exactly two weeks, two minutes, and thirty-four seconds pregnant. Overwhelmed, Felician rushed to the doctors who had once dismissed her hopes. The tests confirmed what she already knew in her heart: she was pregnant. The medical community was astounded. Specialists, who once spoke of impossibilities, gathered in disbelief, witnessing a miracle that defied their expertise.

Felician explained the transformation simply: she had encountered the man of God, Prophet Angel, and through his grace, her condition had been miraculously reversed. Even the skeptical doctors sought out Prophet Angel, witnessing firsthand the divine power at work through him.

Her pregnancy progressed without a single complication. When the time came, she delivered a healthy, beautiful baby girl within an hour, a testament to the miraculous intervention she had received. Empowered by this profound experience, Felician's faith grew stronger. She sought the Prophet's blessing once more. Again, a handshake transferred the divine anointing, and once more, she conceived. Her second pregnancy was as smooth as the first, leaving doctors perplexed and in awe of the miracle.

The specialists confirmed that Felician's ovaries had been inexplicably renewed, and doctors stated that her womb and ovaries were like those of an 18-year-old girl. She could now conceive and bear as many children as she desired. Her case became a beacon of hope, a subject of medical studies and a living testimony of faith overcoming science. Where human capability ended, divine intervention began, turning barrenness into bounty.

Sister Felician Campbell's story is not just about the miracle of childbirth; it is about the triumph of faith, the power of divine grace, and the unyielding belief that where man fails, Doctor Jesus heals. Through the hands of Prophet Uebert Angel, Felician's life was transformed, her womb blessed, and her spirit renewed, showcasing the boundless possibilities of faith and the miracles that it can unfold.

She is deeply grateful to Prophet Uebert Angel for transforming her sorrow into boundless joy. Now, as she gazes upon her two precious daughters, her heart overflows with happiness and gratitude. “Thank you, Man of God, may your life be filled with enduring blessings and prosperity.”

Understanding Weight Management

Obesity is now recognised as one of the most topical public health problems globally with an estimate of more than one billion people in the world living with obesity, of which 880 million are adults and 159 million are children and adolescents aged 5-19 years.
Knowing the truth about losing weight can help you separate what works from what doesn't. Don't get caught up with expensive weight-loss trends that promise unbelievable results. There's no magic way to lose weight.
Losing weight can benefit you in many ways, for example, it can aid in lowering the risk of hypertension, cholesterol problems, diabetes, heart disease, stroke, sleep problems, cancer, and mental health problems.

Here are a few pointers that can help you on your weight management journey:

- Watch what you eat
- Eat more foods with a low glycaemic index. Fruits, vegetables, and farm-grown goods are generally healthier.
- Limit meats to 2-3 times a week. Fish and chicken are healthier than red meat and sausages.
- Make realistic goals and be patient. Gaining weight and losing weight both take time.
- Get a bathroom scale to help you monitor your weight accurately.
- Avoid compensatory behaviour. Over-restricting yourself from certain foods usually leads to overeating them later.
- Watch your eating speed. If you eat slower, you will eat less food.
- Exercise regularly. This can be walking, climbing stairs or more intense exercise.

It's never too late to start!

Common Bad Habits

Here are some top daily habits to change to live a healthier, happier life.

Not drinking enough water,
Recommended daily intake is 6-8 glasses of water. Inadequate water intake can cause headaches, dry skin, urine tract infections, kidney stones, constipation, arthritis, and poor vision etc.

Ignoring obvious symptoms,
If something doesn't look or feel right in your body, you shouldn't ignore it or just hope that time will fix it. Do something about it.

Self-medicating,
Avoid taking every supplement or remedy that you see advertised. Do your own research or ask health professionals.

Ignoring health check-ups,
It is advisable to have a health check-up once in a while. This helps you address issues early and prevent certain health problems from developing in the first place.

Using cotton ear buds,
The ear is designed to clean itself. Cotton ear buds can cause wax impaction or ear drum damage.

Prolonged bed rest,
Get out of bed if you are not sleeping. Using laptops in bed is bad for your back.

"Enjoy a healthy lifestyle!"

The Power of Saying

To understand the power of saying in relation to your healing, we must look at two important scriptures in Genesis chapter 2. Let's look at the first one in verse 7:

Genesis 2:7
And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life [emphasis added]; and man became a living soul.

God breathed into the man He had formed out of the ground, and the man came to life. Do you see that? He breathed the Zoë life into him to bring him to life.

The God-Kind of Faith
by Prophet Uebert Angel

See ad at the end of this article

Now, in Genesis chapter 2, verses 19 and 20, God simply forms the animals and does not breathe the breath of life into them. Notice what happens instead in verse 19:

Genesis 2:19
And out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam [emphasis added] to see what he would call them ...

Why did God not breathe the breath of life into the animals, and why did he bring them to Adam? Here is the revelation.

The word 'what' in verse 19 has the same meaning as how, and the word 'call' has the same meaning as the one in Romans, where God is known as the One who "calls those things that be not as though they were." You might wonder why that is important and what that has to do with the saying part of building up faith for healing, stay with me here, and I will explain.

If you look again at the verse in Genesis 2:19, you will realise that though God created the animals and formed them out of the ground, making them to be seen in the physical, He is not the one who directly made the animals to walk. Now, don't miss this!
God, after creating the animals and forming them out of the ground, used Adam to get the animals to make their first steps, just as He did by making Adam work in the garden, watering it to make the plants come to life! In other words, Adam was using the power of God on what God had already created.

Notice here that Adam did not use his own power. Instead, he used God's power. The power belongs to God every time. Just in case you doubt me, let me prove that statement to you from the Word of God. In 2 Corinthians chapter 4, verse 7, Apostle Paul says it this way:

2 Corinthians 4:7
But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

Now, God formed man out of the ground and breathed into him to make him alive, but when it came to the animals, He only formed them and took them to Adam. That gave Adam the opportunity to use his SAYING ability, and Adam called forth the animals into walking their first steps! This is even clearer when you look at what the verse in Genesis 2:19 says in the original language:

Genesis 2:19
And out of the ground, the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every fowl of the air, then brought them to Adam to see how he might name them and proclaim them to life with the naming that he did to the animals.

Adam did not only name each animal but also SPOKE, and each animal started moving. No wonder God did not breathe the breath of life into the animals. He did not need to!
Look, you are God's son or daughter, and you possess a mouth to call things into existence; that same mouth is not only for eating. Imagine it, brood over it, put it into your spirit, and then continue SAYING it is so, though you might not be seeing its manifestation in the physical. You really can have what you say! Only brood over your desire and then speak it. After speaking out, act as if what you hope for is already so. If you couldn't walk or bend over - jump up by faith as you speak your healing and do what you could not do before! Armed with The Holy Spirit inside you, you have more power than that which God gave Adam when he was created and formed. Speak it!
Speak the desires of your heart that line up with God's will into existence!

Now you know that the power exists, act it out; speak just as God does. The Bible says this in Luke chapter 6, verse 45:

Luke 6:45
From the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.

See, you have the ability to speak healing that will astonish the world, but you must be filled with the word. The mouth can only speak from a source, that is, your heart, your abundance. Fill yourself with the Word pertaining to divine healing. Be confident of who you are in Christ and speak exactly what you want when it comes to your health. The Lord Jesus said, "...you are gods...and scripture cannot be broken." (John 10:34-35) In fact, 'Adam' means "the mankind of God." Boy, I love Jesus! See that? You are a god right there as you are reading this, no sickness can hinder you if you just SAY SO!

In Matthew chapter 9, verses 19 to 22, we see the account of the woman who had an issue of blood and how she exercised the saying part of the God-kind of faith. She held a desire in her heart, a desire to get healed. She was sick for twelve years and went to see doctors, but nothing helped. After she failed to find help, she heard of The Lord Jesus, and the Bible says, "she kept SAYING if I may touch His garment." Let's look at it in Matthew chapter 9, verses 19 to 21:

Matthew 9:19-21
And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples. And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment: For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

The scripture goes on to tell us in verse 22 that "the woman was made whole from that hour." Why did it happen? She exercised the saying part. She kept saying! She kept saying! She kept saying! And so must you!

When I look at this woman's story, I am reminded of another scripture which says, "So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed!" (Acts 19:20). Now, if the Word grew in Ephesus, it can grow in your body, and the tumour will disappear. This is what I do. I get scriptures that cover my case. Then I lift my hands, square my shoulders, and boldly speak out. If the Word of God grew in Ephesus, it will grow in your body and remove every disease. If it grew in Ephesus, and you keep the Word in your mouth, it will grow and remove you from poverty to success, sickness to health. You can have what you say!

This is the God-kind of faith that brings healing to your body. Be a talking person. Chart the course of your life with your words, tell that sickness to go and you will have what you say. This is not a promise. It is a divine fact given to gods, His children: you and me!

Face to Face With Death

Sister Sylvia's story is both heartbreaking and inspiring, a vivid tapestry of what it means to confront an imminent death. It's a terrifying reality that no one would like to face, but this was her journey.

Sister Sylvia fell ill with what seemed like a 'usual' ailment and casually visited the doctors. In a heart-wrenching twist, she was confronted with a harsh reality, "You have stage 4 vulvar cancer", an incurable foe. The doctors' words hung heavy in the air, "There are slim survival chances, but it won't be for long." Uncertainty gripped her, as she asked the doctors "do I have days, weeks, months or years?", but the doctors did not have an answer for her.

Her world transformed the moment she left that doctor's office, forever altered by the grim pronouncement. Like a shadow of death looming, her thoughts shifted from life to its inevitable end. She envisioned the void her absence would leave behind for her family, particularly her son. Struggling to deal with the impending loss, her body responded in kind, surrendering to the merciless grip of illness. Her appetite deteriorated, mirroring her diminishing zest for life.

Without nourishment, the medication began to stop working, and the doctors' report was soon becoming a reality in her life. The once vibrant woman had begun to change countenance as every movement brought excruciating torment, and her bones now hung on a thin thread of flesh. All she could do now was lay down and avoid moving as much as possible.

Sister Sylvia, once a valued member of the church choir, became a shadow of her former self as illness ravaged her body. Eyewitnesses, taken aback by her drastic transformation, struggled to reconcile the image before them with the lively, beloved sister they remembered. One observer, deeply affected by her startling decline, couldn't contain the flood of emotions witnessing the frail figure that sister Sylvia had become. The sight of her diminished form, once brimming with life and vitality, stirred a wellspring of sorrow within. Despite the impulse to reach out, the witness held back, understanding the burden of even a simple greeting on her weakened frame. The stark contrast between her past exuberance and her current state, reliant on others for support, painted a heart-breaking picture. The physical agony etched on her face paled in comparison to the profound sorrow reflected in her eyes, hinting at a soul grappling with memories of a time before illness had seized her.

One Sunday she decided to master all the strength she could, and persuaded her carers to take her to church. She reasoned that whatever would find her on that day, it would find her in church. She came prepared to breathe her last breath, as she told herself that morning, "If today is the day I die, I would rather die in church." However, divine intervention altered her fate that day. The Highly Esteemed, Prophet Uebert Angel, God's vessel being used to heal the sick in nations far and wide unexpectedly to sister Sylvia, ministered to her locating exactly what it was that was the issue.

He went on to give her specific instructions to go ahead with the scheduled operation but uttered these life-giving words, "You will not die, but live." This moment was orchestrated by God himself. The manner of events that day bore witness to the miraculous hand of God. The scheduled operation had a zero to none, chance of survival according to the doctors, but sister Sylvia held onto the words of the Prophet.

Sister Sylvia's scheduled two hour operation extended to a demanding seven hours in the theatre. However, in alignment with Prophet Uebert Angel's prophecy and instruction, the procedure was an absolute success. While conventional treatment would entail followup therapies like radio therapy or chemotherapy, divine intervention through the prophetic instruction rendered them unnecessary.

Sister Sylvia's medical evaluation revealed a miraculous outcome, she was declared FREE OF CANCER, a testament to the Word of God spoken by His servant, the Prophet. After three years, sister Sylvia's life has been transformed into bliss and vitality. As a cherished member of the choir, her heart overflows with joy and gratitude, liberated from the clutches of sickness. Praise the Lord!

TESTIMONIES OF REAL-LIFE HEALING

Family Healed From Various Conditions

I'm from Manchester in the United Kingdom. I witnessed a profound miracle that forever changed my life when I attended the International Pastors and Leaders' Summit (IPLS) in Harare, Zimbabwe, in 2023. My wife urgently messaged me, imploring me to show my phone to the Prophet. Prophet Uebert Angel, with his remarkable anointing, touched my phone and declared, "There is no sickness that God cannot fix." Little did I know, my family back in Manchester was in the midst of a severe health crisis. In that moment of faith and divine intervention, the Prophet's powerful words took effect. Miraculously, my entire family was healed instantly. My baby's high temperature subsided, my mother-in-law's excruciating chest pain disappeared, and my two elder sons, who had been continuously vomiting, were suddenly healed. I am in complete awe of the extraordinary anointing present at Spirit Embassy, The GoodNews Church under the unction of our Prophet. With immense gratitude, I thank Prophet Uebert Angel for the life-changing miracle and honour the profound impact this ministry has had on my life and my family's life.

Diabetes Healed

I suffered from diabetes and acid reflux. I had to carefully choose my diet, avoiding tomatoes, fizzy drinks, and any food that aggravated my acid reflux symptoms. I registered for Healing Sunday with Prophet Uebert Angel, knowing it would bring me the healing I needed. My sugar level at the time was at level 13 which is very high. During his ministration at the prayer line, the Prophet laid his hands on me. Immediately, I got tested, and to the Glory of God, my sugar levels had dropped to 7 and further going down to 4. Now, I can enjoy foods I couldn't before, I am completely healed. Thank you, Prophet Uebert Angel, for changing my life.

Prolasped L4 & L5 Disc Healed

20 years ago I injured myself lifting heavy weight and immediately felt severe pain in my back. I couldn't move, sit or stand. The doctor told me that my L4 and L5 discs had prolapsed and there was nothing that could be done.
