Their Baby Swallowed Meconium

On the 10th of September 2023, a baby boy named Captain Simi entered the world, a tiny warrior destined for a great testimony, but his first breath came with a storm. At birth, the doctors' words fell like thunder: "He has swallowed meconium."

The thick substance had filled his fragile lungs, choking the breath of life from within. His organs began to fail, one after another, until the hum of hospital machines became the only sound sustaining him.

Three different life-support systems stood between him and eternity. To the doctors, it was a 50/50 chance of survival but to heaven, it was an opportunity for glory. "It was as if life itself hung on a thread," his mother recalls, "but even then, I felt the whisper of faith rising through the storm."

In those anxious hours, when the air was heavy with fear, a divine lifeline appeared - the GoodNews Daily devotional. One page in particular pierced through the darkness: "The Power of Your Words" - anchored in Proverbs 18:21, "Death and life are in the power of the tongue."

That revelation was more than ink on paper, it was light breaking through a midnight sky. In that moment, the mother realized that her words were not helpless cries, but weapons of creation. "I stopped repeating what the doctors said and began declaring what God said. I spoke life, I spoke restoration, and I spoke healing, until my voice echoed louder than the machines in that ward.” Every day, she immersed herself in Healing Institute Affirmations and Declarations taught by Prophet Uebert Angel. She watched the healing testimonies on YouTube and Facebook, her faith was boosted by testimonies of others who had dared to believe.

“I didn’t just read - I declared. I didn’t just hope - I believed,” she said.

Each word spoken became a seed of power, and each declaration a note in heaven’s healing symphony. Slowly but surely, the storm began to still. In the midst of the hospital’s sterile corridors, she became a beacon of light, sharing the GoodNews Daily, the Healing Declarations, and the teachings of the Prophet with other mothers. Where fear had reigned, faith began to rise. “I became a vessel of hope, echoing the same declarations that were transforming my son’s condition.”

Then came the 5th of October - the day heaven’s verdict was revealed. After weeks of uncertainty, the doctors stood astonished. Baby Simi’s recovery was not just rapid, it was remarkable. The lungs once clouded with meconium now drew breath with ease. The child who had lain motionless on life support now cooed, kicked, and smiled. Medical science had no explanation, but faith had every answer.

“The doctors were stunned by the speed and completeness of his recovery. They had no words — but I had one: ‘Jesus!’ she boldly stated.

Today, baby Captain Simi is a radiant picture of divine health a living, breathing testimony of the power of the Word. He now points to the GoodNews Daily and reminds the family to read it. Even in his innocence, he declares by action that the Word works when you work the Word.

What began as tragedy became testimony. What started as despair became divine demonstration. Captain Simi’s name now echoes as a declaration that faith-filled words carry the breath of God Himself. It is true that, “When the Word becomes your language, miracles become your lifestyle.” - Prophet Uebert Angel, as Simi’s mother had this to say;

“I thank God for the gift of a prophet in this last dispensation, my father in the Lord, Prophet Uebert Angel. Through his teachings, declarations, and the Healing Institute, I witnessed the miraculous. The Word truly works when you speak it, believe it, and live it.”

From hospital wards to homes, from nations to neighborhoods, these miracles testify that the same Jesus who healed in Galilee still heals today.

A Life Stiffened By Pain

For three long years, Brother Champ lived with a painful condition known as Office Syndrome, a modern-day ailment born of long hours on computer screens, and endless work.

Day after day, he sat before his computer without rest, until his neck grew stiff and his movements froze like stone. Turning his head became an ordeal. The pain was sharp, constant, and unrelenting - a heavy chain around his daily life.

What began as mild discomfort grew into a torment that stole his peace. He could no longer sit through meetings or give presentations. To find momentary relief, he would stand and walk about, hoping the pain would ease but relief never stayed for long.

When Brother Champ heard that Prophet Uebert Angel was coming to Thailand, something within him leapt. He knew that this was not just another visit; it was his moment of healing.

“When I heard the Prophet was coming to Thailand, I knew I was going to be healed,” he said.

That day arrived, and as the prophet of God entered the room, the atmosphere shifted. The air seemed charged with divine presence a tangible weight of glory.

When Prophet Uebert Angel laid hands on him, fear and faith collided in one sacred instant. The Prophet said, gently but firmly, "Look at me in the eyes." As Champ obeyed, he saw something words could not describe - the Glory of God reflected through the eyes of His Prophet. Then, in a flash of divine power, he felt a surge run through his entire being - from the crown of his head to the soles of his feet. It was as though light had entered his body, driving out every trace of pain.

"I fell under the power, and I felt something move from my head to my toes. The pain disappeared, completely!" he testified.

When he rose his neck, once stiff as stone was free. He turned it left, right, up, and down with effortless ease. The pain that had chained him for years was gone in an instant.

What three years of discomfort and medical advice could not cure, one moment in the presence of God accomplished. The healing was not gradual, it was instant, complete, and permanent.

Today, Brother Champ moves freely, works joyfully, and lives pain-free. He is a living testimony that Jesus Christ heals the sick through His servant, Prophet Uebert Angel.

A MOTHER'S REDEMPTION STORY

No mother ever imagines that the first cry of her newborn could also be the last.

For Moreblessing, what began as the most joyous season of her life swiftly descended into the darkest valley she had ever walked through.

It began with a haunting dream, while she was pregnant, in 2023. In it, she saw a bird transform into a human figure that chillingly said, "Give us the baby so that we may eat it." Though startling, she dismissed the dream and went on with her life. Months later when her baby was born, joy filled the air until the unthinkable happened. The child cried continuously, developed a fever, and within an hour, fell silent forever. The doctor's efforts proved futile, there was nothing more to be done. The newborn was gone.

As messages of congratulations poured in from family and friends; unaware of the tragedy, Moreblessing sat in silence, her arms cradling the lifeless body of her child. The room that should have been filled with laughter and lullabies was instead heavy with grief and the sound of quiet sobs.

The pain was deep and unbearable. The dream now made dreadful sense. Tormented by fear and sorrow, she made a silent vow never to try again.

A Word that Rekindled Hope

Months later, in December 2023, hope found her again. During the Exodus Night service led by the Ra'ah, Prophet Uebert Angel, the man of God declared:

“Those who want to have children - go and have children.”

Something stirred deep within her spirit. In that moment of faith, Moreblessing turned to her husband and said with quiet conviction, “I’m carrying our child right now.” To her astonishment, she conceived that very month. At six months, she was personally ministered to by the Ra'ah. As he laid hands on her, he declared:

“I cancel what happened to your first child. I see it trying to repeat, but it will not succeed.”

Those words became her anchor. Though fear tried to whisper otherwise, she clung to that prophecy, believing that God’s word would have the final say.

When the Battle Tried to Return

When the time for delivery came, everything appeared perfect. Her baby arrived healthy and full of life. Relief washed over her until hours later, when symptoms of the illness that had taken her first child came onto the second one; rapid breathing, fever and difficulty in feeding. Memories of her first loss flooded back, but this time, she refused to bow to fear. Doctors diagnosed the newborn with early-onset neonatal sepsis.

This is a life-threatening infection that develops within the first 24 to 72 hours of birth. She began to declare the words spoken over her child:

“I cancel every plan of death. My child will live and not die.”

Though the doctors did everything they could, the infection persisted without explanation. Acting in faith, Moreblessing took out her anointing oil from the Ra'ah, prayed fervently, and anointed her baby.

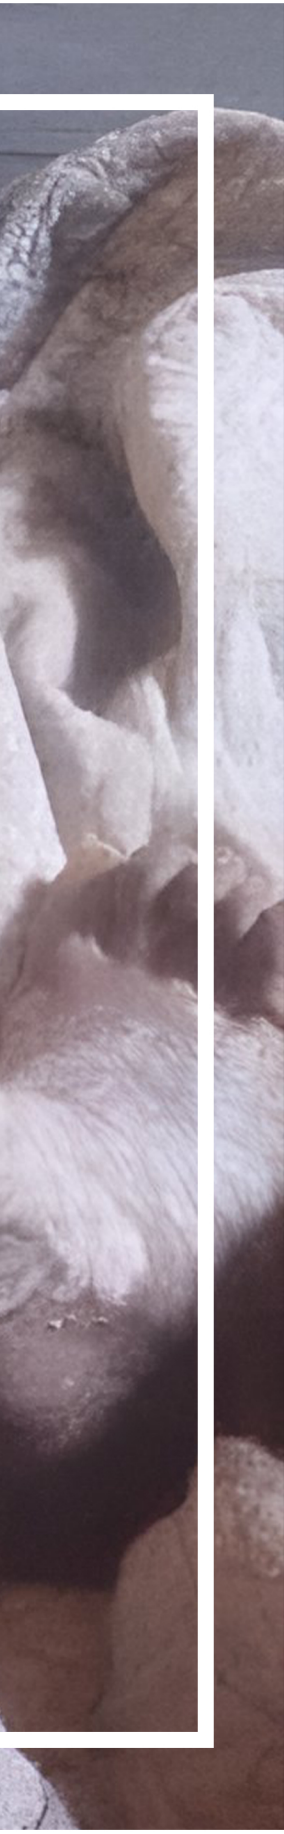

On the eleventh day, despite the fever still lingering, the doctors discharged them confirming that the baby was now perfectly healthy. The doctors could not explain the sudden turnaround, but Moreblessing knew. She had witnessed God’s hand at work.

The Living Proof of God’s Faithfulness

Today, that once-fragile baby is a vibrant, joyful toddler full of laughter, life, and light. Every giggle, every tiny footstep, and every word spoken is a living testimony that God still performs miracles.

What began as tragedy has been rewritten as triumph. God turned her mourning into dancing and her tears into joy. What the enemy meant for destruction became a stage for divine victory. Through it all, Moreblessing has learned that one word from God can rewrite an entire destiny. Looking back, she sees nothing but grace, grace that restores, redeems, and resurrects what was once lost. All glory belongs to God, and to the prophetic word that broke the chain of death.

A Battle With Psoriasis Finds Redemption

FOR FIFTEEN YEARS, NGONI MABVIKO, FOUGHT A WAR ONLY FEW COULD SEE. AT THIRTY-TWO, HE CAN STILL SMELL THE STARCH OF HIS SCHOOL UNIFORM, FEEL THE STING OF HEAT AGAINST HIS LONG SLEEVED SHIRT AND FEEL THE SCRATCH OF BLEACHED GAUZE WHEN NEW WOUNDS OPENED AND OLD ONES REOPENED. WHAT BEGAN AS A HARMLESS ITCH IN HIS TEENAGE YEARS SOON BECAME A RELENTLESS INTRUDER, HIS SKIN HAD TURNED AGAINST HIM - BLEEDING, BURNING, AND BETRAYING HIM WITH EVERY BREATH.

“I wasn’t failing school because I wasn’t smart,” Ngoni recalls. “I was failing because I couldn’t find peace.”

Doctors came and went, each diagnosis a shot in the dark. Creams, ointments, and steroids offered momentary calm, but never cure. His skin became a battlefield — every mirror became a painful reminder of the ailment. The classroom became a stage for humiliation, friendships dissolved, and love became a luxury too fragile to hold.

“I covered myself completely — even on the hottest days,” he says.

“I didn’t want people to see me. I stopped going out. I stopped living.” His war was silent, but his suffering screamed.

Then came July 2024, turning of tides. Through his sisters, Ngoni was introduced to Prophet Uebert Angel and the Healing Institute. “When the Prophet prayed for me,” Ngoni testified, his eyes shining, “I can’t explain it - but something shifted.” That very night, after fifteen years of agony, the itching ceased. The burning eased and he slept through the night, like a baby. He woke up at dawn to peace, which had become an expensive luxury in his life before the prayer by the Ra'ah. This was his first peaceful sleep in over a decade. "It felt like something heavy had been lifted," he said. Change came like morning light. The angry red of lesions softened into calm. Scabs vanished. The hands he once hid now reached freely toward the sun. He wore short sleeves again. He smiled in photographs. He found a job. He rejoined life. What medicine had failed to manage and heal for years, faith completed in days. Ngoni's story is not only one of physical restoration — it is a resurrection of purpose, joy, and self-worth.

In medical terms, psoriasis is defined as a chronic, immune-mediated skin condition where the immune system accelerates skin cell turnover, creating thick, scaly plaques. While conventional treatments - corticosteroids, phototherapy, and biologics - may address symptoms, few reach the weary soul beneath the skin. At the Healing Institute, Ngoni discovered what medicine could not prescribe: both internal and external healing.

Ngoni's healing bridged the visible and the invisible. It was the meeting point of divine power and disciplined care - the intersection where heaven's touch met human science. "When faith enters the room, limitations leave," Prophet Uebert Angel often says.

Divine Health Affirmations

from Prophet Uebert Angel

The joy of the Lord is my strength. I will never be weak. That joy produces laughter deep in my spirit, causing my health to bloom and flourish. Nothing can weigh me down. Sadness, sickness, pain or turmoil are not my portion because I am overcome by joy unspeakable and full of Glory.

Any weapon formed against me shall not prosper. I am fortified by the Word of God. I am indestructible, unshakable, and immovable. Sickness, and disease will not touch me but fall to the ground void.

Healing is easy, therefore I declare it over my life today, in every fibre of my being and in every cell of my body in the mighty name of Jesus!

Today, by faith, I choose to live in the divine health that the Lord has purposed for me. I put an end to glaucoma, cataracts, conjunctivitis, myopia, and any condition causing blindness to my eyes. My eyesight is being restored to perfect and excellent health in the name of Jesus.

Altars of sickness and disease will give way to my triumphant entry into my God ordained destiny. I command the fire of God to consume every evil altar that fights my health. Today, the grip of skin diseases, heart conditions, organ failure, and any other infirmity causing deterioration in my body is broken over my life forever. Amen.

I put an embargo on the plan of the enemy on my children. I speak against any signs and symptoms of autism. I refuse any report contrary to the report of the Lord. My children are perfect, excellent, intelligent, and are set apart from the rest. Divine health is theirs in the name of Jesus!

Barrenness and miscarriages are a thing of the past. I live a renewed life with complete restoration and remuneration. I am fruitful, and I carry all my pregnancies to full term with no complications in sight in Jesus' name.

Jesus Christ is my Lord and Saviour. When He died, I died. When He was buried, I was buried with Him. Now that He has risen, I have been raised together with Him with the resurrection life that is resistant to sin, sickness, disease, and death. Glory to God!

My words are sharper than any two edged sword. They carry power to remove affliction, sickness and disease. Right now, I cast out any skin disease, skin condition, or discomfort trying to attach itself to my body. It shall never return in the name of Jesus!

Hebrews 4:12
“For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.”

I flourish exponentially, like a palm tree planted by the river, ever green and ever fresh. In my health, I flourish. In my bones, I flourish. In all areas of my life, I flourish. Glory to God!

I belong to God and receive eternal life that projects dominion over cancer, diabetes, high blood pressure and any form of sickness. No virus will ravage my body, no infirmity will find refuge in my body, I live a life of abundant grace with good health and peace forming the very fabric of my being. Glory to God!

Christ was bruised for my iniquity, by His stripes we were healed. What afflicted me in the past has lost its hold on me now, for I am healed indeed. No more sickness or disease. Truly, I am healed in the matchless name of Jesus.

Jesus Christ is the great physician. His Word is sufficient and inerrant in its nature. His Word is producing healing to my body and that is a Jesus guarantee. Hallelujah!

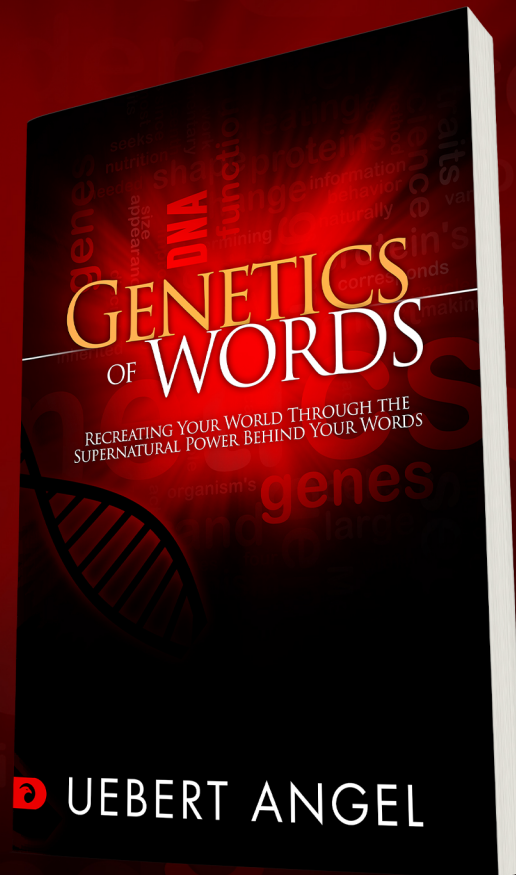

I decree and declare, I will not die. This year, no grave will claim me, no death will claim me. I will live to decree the Word of the Lord. I have been granted longevity in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Psalm 118:17
“I shall not die, but live, And declare the works of the LORD.”

The Lord is my healer. Nothing shall move or shake me. Every area of my life is in safety, and every part of my body is in health in the name of Jesus!

GENETICS OF WORDS

In this ground-shaking book, GENETICS OF WORDS, world-renowned Prophet and spiritual trailblazer Uebert Angel, cracks open the mystery of how divine power has been encoded not in the heavens, but in your very DNA.

You were never ordinary, science calls it “junk DNA.” Heaven calls it divine design. Prophet Angel masterfully shows how light, sound, language, and frequency intersect in your spirit, and how the words you speak literally reprogram reality. Not metaphorically, literally, at the molecular level.

GoodNews Thailand

Bangkok, a city where Christianity stands as a whisper among louder voices, with Buddhism commanding 93.95%, Islam 4.18%, and Christianity a humble 1.68% among other minority religions, seemed an unlikely ground for miracles. In such a landscape, faith in the supernatural appeared to be a distant echo, and the odds of people believing - let alone receiving divine healing - appeared impossibly small, yet heaven needed only one open door.

From 22 to 24 November 2024, the Bright Romance Church on Rama 9 Road became that door and a blazing altar in the heart of a city steeped in other faiths. What happened there defied statistics and silenced doubt. Crowds poured into the streets, worship roared like thunder, and anticipation hung in the air. Then, as if the heavens leaned low over Thailand, miracles began to flow - not as rare wonders, but as naturally as breathing.

Through the hands of Prophet Uebert Angel, the Holy Spirit moved with unmistakable power. The lame walked, the blind saw, and the sick were set free. For three unforgettable days, Bangkok witnessed what many thought impossible. The God of Prophet Uebert Angel left an indelible mark on both the city and the nation. Those who once came burdened by pain left dancing in freedom, and those who doubted walked away believing.

Several medical professionals present could only watch in awe. One doctor whispered afterward, “I came as a skeptic; I leave convinced. No medicine works this fast.” The HIV retests were conducted under medical supervision and confirmed multiple times. The Healing Institute has since preserved the reports as a testament – an approach that honours both faith and responsible documentation.

Miracles rippled far beyond the walls of Bright Romance Church. Testimonies flooded in from viewers across Myanmar, Singapore, and India, many reporting instant healings as they watched online. Pain vanished, swelling disappeared, and strength returned. Distance proved no barrier to grace.

GoodNews Thailand was more than a crusade, it was a divine visitation. The miracles were astounding, but the greater wonder was the transformation of hearts. Families were restored, faith was reignited, and countless lives were set ablaze with hope.

Closing the final night, Prophet Uebert Angel declared, “Healing is the language of God’s love. Wherever we go, sickness must bow – because Jesus is alive” and Bangkok believed.

Sixteen Years of Back and Chest Pain – Healed Instantly

Lithy, a dedicated teacher from Thailand, had endured back pain for sixteen long years. What began as a minor discomfort gradually intensified until it affected every part of her daily life. She could no longer stand or sit for long periods and eventually had to quit her job. The stress led to severe chest pain, and she even lost the ability to lift her right arm.

Feeling hopeless, Lithy moved back in with her parents, burdened by both pain and despair. Her faith was fading - she prayed but saw no change and could not understand why healing seemed out of reach.

Everything changed when she attended the Healing Institute service with Prophet Uebert Angel. As the Prophet ministered, her understanding of God's word deepened, and faith was rekindled within her. When the Prophet approached her, he smiled, pointed directly at the area of pain, and in that instant, she felt a surge of power spread throughout her body. She fell under the power of the Holy Spirit, and when she stood up - every pain was gone.

Overcome with gratitude, she testified, "To anyone suffering as I did, don't give up - God will help you and dry every tear. I had lost all hope, but now I truly know Prophet Uebert Angel is a real Man of God."

Sixteen Years of Back Pain, Chest Pain, and Loss of Smell

Anna had suffered for sixteen years with back pain, chest pain, and loss of smell. Her ordeal began after visiting a temple for prayer and sacrifice, but instead of peace, her health declined, her business collapsed, and pain took over her body. She could no longer work or enjoy food because she had lost her sense of smell completely.

When Anna heard that Prophet Uebert Angel was coming to Bangkok, a spark of hope ignited within her heart. During the healing session, as the Prophet laid hands on her, she felt a powerful surge of divine energy flow through her entire body. She fell under the anointing, and when she got back up, every trace of pain was gone—and her sense of smell was completely restored.

"I felt like a newborn baby breathing fresh air again," she joyfully shared. "My life has completely changed. To anyone suffering like I was, join the Healing Institute. Your life will never be the same. Thank you, Prophet Uebert Angel, for demonstrating the love of God and for bringing healing to Thailand."

Five Years of Slipped Discs - Set Free and Made Whole

For five years, Nihau battled excruciating back pain caused by herniated discs. The pain stole her mobility and her peace. She spent vast amounts of money seeking treatment - so much that she eventually sold her home - but nothing brought relief. Financial strain grew, tensions rose within her family, and depression crept in. At her lowest point, she even urged her husband to end the marriage, feeling she had become a burden.

God was not done with her story. In the midst of it all, a ray of hope emerged when a friend told her about Good-News Thailand and the forthcoming visit of Prophet Uebert Angel. She attended the meeting with unwavering faith, convinced that her moment of divine intervention had finally arrived. That night, when the prophet laid hands on her, she felt something extraordinary - "as if my spirit left my body and came back renewed," she recalled. Instantly, all pain disappeared. She began to jump, shout, and rejoice - completely healed.

"To anyone suffering with sickness," she encouraged, "come to God and you will be healed. God used His servant, Prophet Uebert Angel, to bring my miracle. I am totally healed, and my life will never be the same."

"Healing is the language of God's love. Wherever we go, sickness must bow — because Jesus is alive"

Lost Sense of Smell Restored

The first miracle came like a spark in the night. A man who had lost his sense of smell for years stepped forward for prayer. As Prophet Uebert Angel laid hands on him, he inhaled deeply and broke down in tears. "I can smell again!" he shouted, as worship erupted through the hall. The moment, captured on live TV, now viewed by thousands online, marked the beginning of a flood of wonders.

Cancer and Pain Gone

A woman from Singapore, diagnosed with stage-three cancer, came burdened with pain and fear. After prayer, the pain vanished instantly. The lump she once felt was gone. Later scans confirmed the miracle as the growth had disappeared completely.

by the Blood of Jesus." Subsequent tests confirmed what Heaven had already decreed - every result came back negative. It was evidence so undeniable that both faith and science stood in reverent silence.

Sleep for the Sleepless

One woman, tormented by insomnia for three years, found rest in the presence of God. Moments after being anointed, she drifted into peaceful sleep during worship. She woke up refreshed from the first full rest she'd had in years and has slept normally ever since.

Eyes and Ears Opened

A mother screamed in Thai as her son, born deaf, suddenly turned at the sound of her voice. Another woman, blind in one eye since childhood, blinked repeatedly and gasped as she began describing colors she had never seen before.

*"Healing is the language of God's love.
Wherever we go,
sickness must bow
because Jesus is alive"*

Healed from Paralysis

An elderly Thai man, paralyzed on one side after a stroke, rose slowly from his wheelchair, taking careful steps that later turned confident. With every step, the crowd gasped and then rejoiced. His family fell to their knees in tears. "Eight years in this chair," he whispered, "and now I walk."

HIV: From Positive to Negative

Among the most remarkable testimonies was that of a man living with HIV. Holding medical papers in trembling hands, he received prayer as the Prophet declared, "Your blood is cleansed

The Healing Institute of Spirit Embassy, founded by Prophet Uebert Angel, continues its global mission to "heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, and cast out devils." From Africa to Asia, it remains a channel through which the compassion of Christ touches humanity. GoodNews Thailand stands as a landmark - a vivid reminder that medicine may measure recovery, but God defines it.

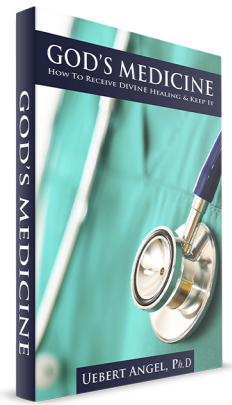

6 Year Old Healed From Pityriasis rosea

For four months, young Anaishe Gumure suffered from an itchy, painful rash that appeared on her face and body. What initially seemed like a simple rash soon worsened despite several attempts to treat it. Her parents tried various creams but none yielded results. Anaishe took oral medications for two months with no improvement. The condition became both financially and emotionally draining for the family. Due to the severity of the rash, Anaishe often missed school and could no longer participate in her favorite activities, such as swimming. Her parents dressed her in clothes that covered her neck and hands to protect her skin and to avoid public discomfort. Her mother struggled to concentrate at work, constantly worried about her daughter's suffering and desperate to find relief for her.

Determined to find help, Anaishe's mother took a leap of faith and decided to register for the Healing Institute program, which offers free healing classes.

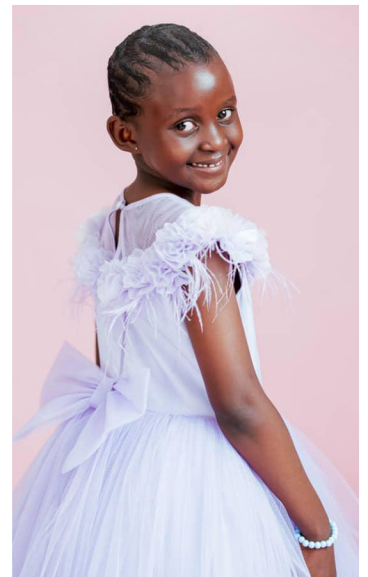

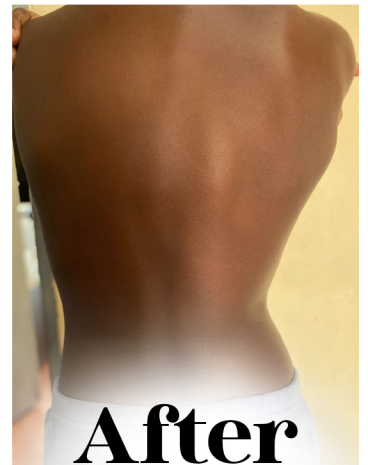

They attended faithfully, and during one of the sessions, when the Prophet prayed for Anaishe, something extraordinary happened. Immediately, the itching and pain stopped. By the next day, all the skin lesions had completely disappeared. Overjoyed, Anaishe ran to her mother, exclaiming that her skin was smooth and free from any rash. This case of Pityriasis Rosea was particularly severe and prolonged, lasting far beyond the typical 6–10 weeks that the condition usually takes to resolve on its own with use of prescribed medication. The complete healing within 24 hours of prayer was nothing short of miraculous.

Anaishe's mother encourages others facing similar challenges to remain in faith, declaring that the Healing Institute is truly a solution ground where the God of Prophet Uebert Angel is changing lives. She expresses heartfelt gratitude, saying, "Thank you so much, Ra'ah, for answering the call of God and transforming lives."

Good News Zambia

On the 9th of August 2025, the city of Kitwe stood still as heaven touched earth. Nkana Stadium, affectionately known as Pachilata, was transformed into a place of divine encounter when the Ra'ah, Prophet Uebert Angel, led one of the most remarkable healing crusades ever witnessed in Zambia. The night became a landmark in the nation's history - a night when faith became sight and miracles flowed like rivers of living water.

Under the prophetic leadership of the Ra'ah, thousands poured into the stadium from across Zambia and beyond. The atmosphere was electric with faith, expectation, and a hunger for God's touch. It was more than an event - it was a divine visitation. The Copperbelt Province had never seen such a move of God.

Over 20,000 people were in attendance, and what unfolded was nothing short of supernatural. Through the Healing Institute led by Prophet Uebert Angel, lives were transformed as sicknesses dissolved in the presence of God. From HIV to blindness, deafness to paralysis—every kind of affliction bowed before the power of the Holy Spirit. Among the most awe-inspiring moments were those of individuals who had lived with HIV for years and were instantly declared free. Their testimonies became living proof of Psalm 103:2-3: "Praise the Lord, my soul, and forget not all His benefits - who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases." The Lord truly heals all not some diseases.

As the night progressed, heaven's melody filled the air. Deaf ears popped open one after another. The silence that had defined lives for years was broken by cries of joy and songs of thanksgiving. Families wept as their loved ones heard their voices for the first time. It was the fulfillment of Isaiah 35:5: "Then will the eyes of the blind be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped."

The blind began to see. Eyes that had long known only darkness blinked open to the beauty of light. Some stood in disbelief, gazing at faces they had not seen in years. Others fell to their knees, overwhelmed by the wonder of it all. "According to your faith, let it be done to you," as Jesus declared in Matthew 9:29-30, those words came alive at Nkana Stadium that night.

Then came the moment that shook the crowd—the crippled began to walk. Wheelchairs were abandoned, crutches lifted high, and those who had been bound for years leaped and danced across the field. The stadium erupted in uncontrollable praise. Isaiah 35:6 echoed in the hearts of many: "Then will the lame leap like a deer, and the mute tongue shout for joy.” Isaiah 35: 6. It was a night when the impossible became possible and when despair was replaced by rejoicing.

beyond the physical miracles came an even greater one - the salvation of souls. Over 3,000 people gave their lives to Christ, surrendering their hearts in tears of repentance and joy. The words of Luke 15:7 rang true: “There is more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.” The angels surely rejoiced as the multitudes did, bursting into song and dance over the souls heaven had gained in one night. heaven recorded a multitude of new names in the Book of Life.

As Prophet Uebert Angel ministered, it was as though the very atmosphere trembled with the anointing. Like Peter in Acts 3:6, he declared healing, deliverance, and salvation in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. And just as in the days of the Apostles, miracles broke out in every direction. It was not by might nor by power, but by the Spirit of the Living God.

When dawn approached and the crusade drew to a close, one thing was certain, the city of Kitwe would never be the same again. People left Nkana Stadium not only healed in body but revived in spirit. The fire of revival had been lit, and its glow could be felt across the Copperbelt and beyond. The night stood as a living testimony of Jeremiah 32:27: “I am the Lord, the God of all mankind. Is anything too hard for me?” Indeed, nothing is too hard for God. Deaf ears opened, blind eyes saw, crippled legs walked, and hearts were restored. It was the night heaven visited Zambia.

And as the dust settled on Nkana Stadium, one truth resounded in every heart: this was not the end, it was the beginning. A spark had been lit that would set nations ablaze. The revival that began in Kitwe is destined to echo through generations, declaring that Jesus Christ is still the same yesterday, today, and forever.

HIV Free After Eight Years

For eight long years, Cecilia from Kitwe carried a silent burden. Diagnosed with HIV in 2018, every day was a struggle between faith and fear. Her life revolved around the clock - alarms set daily to remind her to take her medication at the exact same time. The tablets were large, bitter reminders of the virus that haunted her body and mind. The stigma was unbearable. She hid her condition from family, pretending to be fine but when her daughter stumbled upon the medication, Cecilia’s secret was out. Despair threatened to consume her until faith found her.

“I had seen the Prophet praying for people in GoodNews Lusaka in 2024,” she recalls. “Their testimonies gave me hope. I marked the day Prophet Uebert Angel would come to Kitwe - August 9th, 2025 - as my day of freedom.”

When the Prophet prayed and declared, “HIV is gone,” something shifted deep within her. Days later, Cecilia went back to the hospital. Test after test confirmed what heaven had already decreed - HIV negative.

“I couldn’t stop smiling,” she says. “God healed me completely. To anyone out there - keep believing. The same God who healed me will heal you too.”

24 Years of Ear Discharge, Healed Instantly

For Kennedy, life had been a 24-year-long battle against pain and embarrassment. Since birth, he suffered from otorrhea. The constant discharge of foul-smelling discharge from his ears was accompanied by excruciating pain. He had tried it all: medication, herbal remedies, and home cures, but nothing worked until the day that changed everything. When Prophet Uebert Angel

From Cecilia’s healing of HIV to Joshua’s restored hearing, the Kitwe crusade became more than a gathering - it was a manifestation of heaven on earth visited Kitwe, Kennedy attended with one desperate prayer, ‘to be healed.’

“The moment the Prophet touched my ears,” Kennedy recounts, “the discharge dried up instantly. The pain vanished. It was as if someone flipped a divine switch.”

Today, his ears are perfectly normal, there is no discharge, no pain. The miracle didn’t stop there. His business began to flourish, and doors that had long been shut flew open.

“God truly visited me,” Kennedy says, smiling. “It was as if the Prophet came to Kitwe just for me. My life will never be the same again.”

Bleeding Stopped Instantly

For four agonizing months, Chilufiya battled abnormal uterine bleeding that left her weak and anemic. Doctors diagnosed hormonal imbalance and suggested an expensive procedure she couldn’t afford. Medication failed. Hope faded. Nevertheless, one night, she dreamt of Prophet Uebert Angel handing her a card and she took it a sign she couldn’t ignore. She travelled across Zambia to attend the crusade in Kitwe. Even though she wasn’t in the Healing Line, she raised her faith and her phone, showing the prophet a picture of herself as he passed by. “When he touched the picture,” she says, “I felt something powerful move through my body. I fell under the power of God and couldn’t breathe for a moment. When I went to check myself, I realized the bleeding had stopped completely.”

Tears of joy streamed down her face. The same doctors who once suggested surgery could not explain what had happened to her. Today she is free of this ailment and living proof that God is still in the business of performing miracles.

My Son Can Hear Again

For Lloyd, watching his son Joshua grow up in silence was heartbreaking. Diagnosed with severe hearing loss at just two years old, Joshua lived in a world without sound. His parents had to shout directly into his ears for him to hear faintly, and speech was almost impossible. They had tried everything and moved from one hospital to another but to no avail. Even hearing aids had proven to be futile, his hearing couldn’t be restored.

This was their story until the day of divine intervention. During the Kitwe crusade, Prophet Uebert Angel prayed for Joshua, gently touching his ears and the hearing aids. In that very moment, Lloyd recalls that he spoke to Joshua without shouting and he responded, though the surroundings were noise stricken.

“In that noisy crowd, I spoke to Joshua without shouting - and he responded! He could hear perfectly without his hearing aids.”- Lloyd

The miracle stunned everyone. Joshua’s speech began improving rapidly, and his laughter filled the air like music they had longed to hear for years.

“Now he says he wants to go to Zimbabwe to meet the Prophet again,” Lloyd says with a smile. “To everyone reading this, know that there is still a God who heals. I’ve seen Him at work through Prophet Uebert Angel.”

No Prayer, No Laying on of Hands, Just the Atmosphere And a 31 Year Story Changes.

Nkana Stadium in Kitwe throbbed with worship. Tens of thousands had gathered for GoodNews Zambia with the Highly Esteemed Prophet Uebert Angel — and the atmosphere itself seemed to hum with expectation. Even before the man of God ministered, miracles were stirring among the crowd. Among them was Abraham Zulu, a quiet young man whose life had been shaped from birth by a diagnosis he never asked for — HIV. He wasn't in the prayer line. He wasn't seeking hands to be laid on him. He wasn't even in the audience. He was on stage, playing guitar. Yet in that atmosphere — something happened that medical science cannot fully explain.

A Life Marked From Birth

Born in 1994, Abraham carried HIV from infancy. By 2007, as symptoms began to surface, doctors confirmed the diagnosis and started him on lifelong antiretroviral therapy.

"I had black spots on my hands," he recalled. "My feet were not as they are today. I struggled even to wear shorts."

By adulthood, he had lived with HIV for nearly three decades. He married, became a father, and built a stable life — yet the emotional burden remained.

"There were days I thought I wouldn't marry well," he admitted. "I thought no woman would accept me. But God blessed me with a wife who has always been HIV negative, and our child too."

Faith kept him standing. Treatment kept him stable. But HIV remained a permanent part of his medical record — until Kitwe.

Abraham did not attend the GoodNews Zambia crusade seeking healing. “I just wanted to attend,” he said. “And I volunteered to play guitar for Kings Malembe.” He stood behind the stage, grateful to be part of the worship team. Then Prophet Uebert Angel declared to the stadium: “Every problem you came with ends here.”

Abraham had heard similar words before, but this time — something was different. “I simply whispered, ‘God, have mercy on me.’ I didn’t ask for healing. I just surrendered.” No one prayed for him. No one touched him. No one called his case. Yet in the Prophet’s atmosphere — something shifted. A quiet thought rose in his heart, “Go and test.”

The Test That Changed Everything

After the crusade, Abraham went for a medical test. “How long have you lived with this condition?” asked the medical team. “Since birth. I am on treatment. It has been many years,” he answered. Then the result came: NEGATIVE. Abraham stared at the doctor, stunned. “Sir... you must be joking.” But it was no joke. A second test the next day: negative. Additional kits at home: negative. Even his wife confirmed it. The virus that had defined his entire life — was gone.

In His Own Words

“Man of God, Prophet Uebert Angel — thank you. You never laid hands on me, yet God used you to heal me. My wife was shocked. I kept testing again and again. Every result said ‘negative.’ I pray God continues to preserve and use you for generations.”

The Prophet’s Shadow, The Healer’s Touch

Chief Cardinal Felix Angel, host of The Atmosphere for Healing, summarized the moment: “This is synonymous with the life of the Prophet. Just being in his atmosphere — miracles happen.” Abraham’s miracle perfectly embodies the Healing Institute’s calling: Healing is not a ceremony. Healing is a presence. And in that presence, Jesus — the True Healer — touched a man who wasn’t even asking for a miracle. Abraham walked into Nkana Stadium HIV positive. He walked out a new man.

A Message For The World

To anyone battling long-standing sickness, Abraham says: “Do not let your faith die. God’s hand is not too short to reach you. Even if it has been many years — believe.” His story shines as a beacon of hope for millions living with HIV/AIDS. It is proof that what medical science calls incurable, God calls simple.

THE HEALING INSTITUTE: NETWORKING THE WORLD WITH GOD’S POWER

From Kitwe to Thailand, Dubai to Harare, the Healing Institute continues its God-given mission — taking healing to millions around the world. The miracle in Abraham’s blood is one of thousands witnessed in Prophet Uebert Angel’s global crusades. Each stands as living evidence of Matthew 10:8: “Heal the sick... freely you have received, freely give.”

Top Tips for Health & Wellness

Staying healthy is crucial for maintaining a high quality of life. A healthy lifestyle, incorporating balanced nutrition, regular physical activity, and mental wellbeing, enhances physical wellness. It reduces the risk of chronic diseases such as heart disease, diabetes, and obesity while boosting energy levels and longevity. Prioritising health leads to better productivity, improved mood, and a more resilient immune system, allowing individuals to enjoy life fully. Embracing healthy habits is a proactive approach to boosting your life both immediately and in the long term.

Boost Your Life

Here are 4 Daily Healthy Habits to Help Boost Your Life!

1. Maintain a Consistent Sleep-Wake Cycle

Go to bed and wake up at the same time every day, including weekends, to support your circadian rhythm, the internal 24-hour clock. A well-regulated circadian rhythm optimises DNA repair, manages oxidative stress, and modulates immune and inflammatory responses, thus protecting your cells. To effectively train your circadian rhythm, expose your eyes to sunlight first thing in the morning.

2. Engage Your Sense of Smell Before Eating

Smelling your food before eating significantly boosts saliva production, preparing your mouth and digestive system for food intake. This kick off to digestion aids in the enzymatic breakdown of food, which is crucial for effective nutrient absorption.

3. Take Three Deep Nasal Breaths to Calm Stress

Deep nasal breaths help lower cortisol levels, reducing the physical symptoms of stress. By increasing oxygen flow to the brain, you enhance concentration, decision making abilities, and regulate emotions in a controlled and calm manner. Engaging in deep breathing can also lower your blood pressure, helping your body transition from a stressed "fight or flight" state to a more relaxed "rest and digest" mode.

4. Jump on a Trampoline to Boost Lymphatic Flow

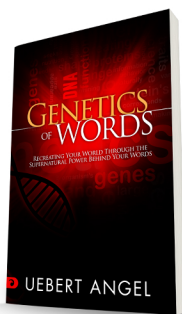

The up and down motion of jumping promotes circulation in the lymphatic system, helping to remove toxins and waste from the body more efficiently. This can also aid in strengthening the immune system, which helps fend off infections and maintain overall health. The increased circulation and oxygenation from this low impact exercise can lead to higher energy levels, improved mood, and reduced feelings of fatigue and stress.

Incorporating these simple daily habits can significantly enhance your health and wellbeing. From regulating your sleep-wake cycle to jumping on a trampoline, each activity supports your body in different ways—boosting energy, improving mood, and strengthening your immune system. Embrace these tips to cultivate a healthier, more vibrant life!

Baby Anayah Raised From The Dead

It was a quiet Friday night, 18 October 2024 at around 10:30 p.m., when duty and destiny collided. Brother Ray Phenomenal, a faithful serving member of the ministry in the Protocol Department, was at his post when his phone rang. On the other end was his wife, her voice, though calm considering the situation at hand, carried news no parent ever wishes to hear: their nine-day-old baby, Anayah, was no longer breathing. In that moment, time seemed to freeze. Words failed him, and his heart stood still. His colleague, Brother Brian, who overheard the conversation through the phone's speaker, immediately rushed into the office of the Highly Esteemed Prophet Uebert Angel. Before Brian could even finish the sentence, "Prophet, Ray's child is dead..." the Prophet, moved by divine urgency, interrupted and declared, "Quiet! That child is not dying!"

Those words pierced the atmosphere like a sword of faith cutting through despair.

Without hesitation, the Prophet grabbed a bottle of anointing oil from his desk and rushed to the door. As he moved, he declared life over the lifeless child, commanding the impossible to yield to the power of God.

He then instructed Brother Ray to call an ambulance immediately and to anoint the baby upon arrival home.

Meanwhile, at home, the wife had witnessed something horrifying - baby Anayah had begun passing stool through her mouth and nose, a sign of complete body shutdown. The infant's body was motionless, and pale, death seemed to have written its verdict but heaven had already issued a counter-decree through the Prophet's word: "That child is not dying!"

Brother Ray arrived home with the ambulance team. Following the Prophet's instruction, he gently anointed the baby with the oil given to him. Moments later, a faint movement stirred, a flutter of life where death had reigned, then came a cough, a choke, and a cry! The lifeless child gasped back into life as if heaven had breathed into her lungs once more. Faith met obedience, and life answered.

The paramedics, stunned yet professional, began suctioning her airways and placed her on oxygen. The ambulance sped to the hospital, sirens echoing like trumpets of victory after a battle won.

At the hospital, the pediatrician on duty could hardly believe what he saw. A baby who had vomited stool - an occurrence that should have meant certain death - was alive and breathing. Initially suspecting it was regurgitated milk, the doctor was astonished to find actual stool stains on the baby's towel. Tests were run. Scans were performed. Results returned - all normal. No damage, no complications, no medical explanation. EVERYONE WAS STUNNED AT SUCH AN OCCURANCE.

For three days, baby Anayah was kept under observation. By the third day, she began pulling at the nasal prongs supplying oxygen, a sign that she no longer needed them. She was breathing perfectly on her own. What began as tragedy became testimony. What looked like the end became evidence that God still raises the dead today.

Prophet Uebert Angel, in his unending compassion and unconditional love, personally covered all medical expenses.

In moments when fear eclipses faith, obedience to the Prophet's instruction becomes the bridge to breakthrough. Brother Ray later testified that his own faith had faltered for a moment but he held firmly to the Prophet's word as, "the word of a prophet is his greatest asset," he said and followed every instruction without hesitation as 2 Chronicles 20:20 (NET) alludes: "Trust in the Lord your God and you will be safe! Trust in the message of His prophets and you will win!"

Through faith, obedience, and the prophetic word, the Phenomenal family witnessed the impossible bow before divine authority.

Today, baby Anayah is alive, healthy, and thriving - a radiant reminder that the God of Prophet Uebert Angel still performs miracles in our generation. From breathless silence to joyful cries, from lifeless stillness to a living song, baby Anayah's story is proof that when heaven speaks, death must surrender.

To anyone walking through a dark hour, remember: believe in the Lord, and trust in His Prophet. The same God who restored Anayah's breath is still in the business of rewriting stories and resurrecting destinies. This is not just testimony - it is living proof that the Word works, and that faith still moves mountains.

Eczema Vanishes Over Night

I battled eczema for over a year, relying on daily medication to manage the constant itching and hiding the rash under long sleeves, with nights made unbearable by the heat. But everything changed after the Prophet prayed for me – the next morning I woke up searching for the itchiness, and it was gone. The rash had completely vanished, leaving me with clear skin and a restored sense of relief and confidence.

“Why Not Me?”

The Story of Pu Rigi

At 71 years old, Pu Rigi from Fiji had quietly carried the weight of a growing lump in her left breast. After telling her children, they repeatedly encouraged her to seek medical attention, but deep in her heart, she held a different conviction. She believed that the grace she lived under, the anointing of Prophet Uebert Angel was already speaking for her, long before any doctor could.

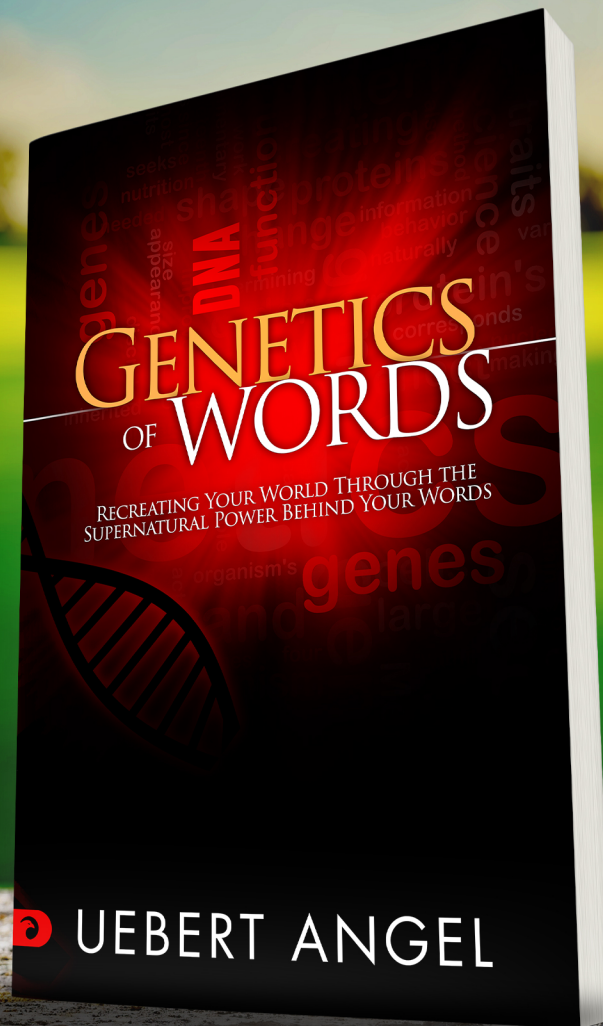

During the Healing Conference in Tanzania, which was broadcasted live, Pu witnessed the power of God. She saw people with conditions similar to hers being healed, one after another. Then a woman testified about a breast lump that had completely disappeared. In that moment, something ignited inside Pu. She thought, “If God can do it for her, why not me?”

With unwavering faith, she spoke to her own breast, declaring healing over her body.

Today, Pu joyfully testifies that the lump has completely vanished. What once caused concern has disappeared without a trace. Her words now echo with confidence and gratitude: “I am healed.”
 Glory to God!!!

GENETICS OF WORDS

THE POWER OF
THE TONGUE IS YOUR WORDS,
YOUR ABILITY
TO SPEAK
THINGS INTO EXISTENCE.

YOUR LIFE RIGHT
RESULT OF WORDS SPOKEN,
AND YOU CHART
YOUR LIFE WITH YOUR WORDS.

The God Frequency

The most important thing God ever gave you was words. He gave you words before He gave you salvation, and everything you have or ever will receive from Him is predicated on words. Without words, you could not receive salvation because salvation is given to you through words and received with words. The same applies to your healing. The Bible tells us that to be saved, you must call upon the name of the Lord:

Romans 10:13

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

But notice the process that makes that possible:

Romans 10:14

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

Salvation is communicated to you through words, and then with your words, you receive it. That is what the scripture says in Romans chapter 10:

Romans 10:8-10

8. But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach):

9. that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.

10. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

Do you see that? You hear words that communicate salvation to you, then you speak or confess words affirming your belief in that salvation. That is the system God has set in place for all of us to receive salvation. It is a system of words. That is the way God operates: He speaks words to communicate His thoughts, intent, will, and promises.

The Creative Word

God is a speaking God, and when He speaks a word, that word contains the inherent ability to produce what it says. His words have creative ability, and He has given us the same ability to speak words that create. He told us in His Word that our words—every word we speak—creates or produces something.

Proverbs 18:21

Death and life are in the power of the tongue; and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

The power of the tongue is your words, your ability to speak things into existence. Your life right now is the result of words spoken, and you chart the course of your life with your words. James draws an analogy between the tongue and instruments used to control the direction of things. He compares the tongue to the bit of a horse's bridle.

James 3:3

Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

Now, a bit is a small device about five inches long that is attached to a horse's bridle. The bit is the part of the bridle that goes into the horse's mouth. Horses are not small creatures by any stretch of the imagination. A full-grown horse on average can weigh more than 500 kilograms (over 1200 pounds). Yet, this tiny bit can control the horse's speed and direction of movement.

James also compares the tongue to the rudder of a ship.

James 3:4-5a

4. Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listenth.

5. Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things.

A ship is classified as any boat that is more than 60 meters (nearly 200 feet) long and weighs more than 500 tonnes. A ship's rudder is incomparably smaller than the ship itself but is used to steer a vessel of immense proportions. With your tongue, more specifically, your words, you steer or chart the course of your life. As a prophet, my words are my greatest asset.

You may not be a prophet, but as a Christian, you ought to recognize that words are also your greatest asset. Words were given to you so that you can grab the reigns of your life and steer your life in the direction you want it to go. But too often, Christians have spoken words to their detriment rather than their benefit.

There was a woman who went to her doctor complaining that she felt hot all the time. The doctor ran all kinds of tests trying to determine what was causing the problem. Every diagnostic test came back negative. But in consulting with the woman, the doctor noticed something. The woman kept saying, "I'm burning up!" Since the tests could uncover no medical cause for her problem, the doctor gave her a simple suggestion: maybe you should stop saying, "I'm burning up!" Exasperated and left with no other recourse, the woman decided to give that a try.

Every time she started to say, "I'm burning up!" she would catch herself and say, "I feel so cool." As she continued to do this, within a couple of weeks, her high temperature normalized, and the hot flashes stopped completely. How could such a thing happen? Was this woman lying by saying she was cool? No, not at all! She was activating a principle that God Himself uses.

The Bible says:

Romans 4:17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were [emphasis added].

Notice, it does not say that we should speak those things which are as though they were not. It says if we're going to function like God, we must speak those things which be not as though they were. The woman did not say she wasn't hot; she said she felt cool. She spoke those things which were not as though they were. You don't need to speak your sickness. You need to speak your healing. You don't have to talk about how broke you are. Instead, talk about how rich Christ has made you.

You see, as this woman spoke and continued to speak, her words were affecting her own body. It was the same principle she had enacted negatively by continually declaring that she was "burning up." When she used her words positively, they had a positive effect on her body.

Garbage In, Garbage Out

In computer science, there is a well-known expression: Garbage In, Garbage Out (GIGO). It means that the quality of the code you input will determine the quality of the output. That is true of computer programming, and it is also true of you. As your words go, so your life goes. Look at what Solomon, one of the world's wisest men ever to live, said about words:

Proverbs 8:8

All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them.

In simple words, don't talk nonsense! Many of you may find it difficult just to stop talking nonsense because you've programmed yourself for so long with nonsense. Like the woman who was burning up, it was not enough for her to only stop saying I'm burning up. She had to replace those words with other words that would produce the result she wanted. You must do the same.

Words of Faith

You are the product of words. That is why it is essential to feed your spirit every day with the Word of God. Your spirit feeds on the Word the same way your physical body feeds on natural food. Kenneth E. Hagin, quoting F.F. Bosworth said, "Most Christians feed their body three hot meals a day and their spirit one cold snack a week. And they wonder why they're so weak in faith." You need faith to please Him. In fact, without faith, it's impossible to please God. Therefore, you need faith to receive your healing & live in divine health!

Hebrews 11:6a

But without faith it is impossible to please Him.

Faith is what gets you on the frequency of God. When He speaks, His words are full of faith. If you are going to communicate on His frequency, faith is required.

Jesus was a master of communicating on the God frequency. If you take note of how Jesus—God in the body of a Jew—spoke while He was on earth, you will see that He spoke simple faith-filled words that produced results every time. Not one of His words was idle (unemployed). He was aware that His words were giving life to something in the spirit realm.

That is why He said:

John 6:63b

The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

Every time He opened His mouth, He knew His words were producing something. Whether He was speaking to a shrivelled limb or the roots of a tree or to the woman with the issue of blood, He knew His words were changing things, altering DNA. This is the awareness we ought to have. In fact, He actually tells us that if we would speak faith-filled words, all things are possible.

Mark 11:23

For verily I say unto you, that whosoever shall say unto this mountain, be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass, he shall have whatsoever he saith.

This is remarkable!

The Lord is telling us that the person who will speak faith-filled words can have whatever they say.

Scientists have proven that DNA has a frequency with which you can communicate. The key is you need to be on the same frequency. What scientists may not have fully understood yet is that the God frequency is far superior to any frequency they can observe in a lab. It is with that superior frequency we can communicate with everything around us. Faith is the frequency of God. When you talk to Him, you must be on His frequency. When you speak the Word of God in faith over your body, over your finances, over any adverse situation, you are communicating with the God frequency. Everything in and around you is designed to respond to the frequency of God's Word because that is the frequency with which everything was created.

Hebrews 11:3

Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

When you speak faith-filled words, you can move any obstacle because everything in the physical is temporal and subject to change (see 2 Corinthians 4:18).

Jesus made this very clear when He said:

Matthew 17:20b

If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

When you communicate on this frequency of faith, nothing is impossible. You can command healing to your body, and it will respond. That is exactly what the Lord Jesus was teaching when He said you can have what you say. When you speak faith-filled words, you are tuning in to the frequency of God.

Using the God Frequency

Now that you know that faith is the God-frequency, how exactly do you use it to get results? The writer of Hebrews said it like this:

Hebrews 10:23

Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised.

What this simply means is whatever God has said concerning your life, you agree with Him by openly declaring what He said. For example, if God says you're healed, you open your mouth and maintain the confession that you are healing. If He tells you that you're healed, you declare that you are healed.

That does not mean that if the doctor has given you a negative report about your health, you're denying the facts. No. You are merely denying the facts the authority to dictate what happens in your life. By confessing the Word over your health, you are acknowledging the truth, and the truth overrides the facts. Hold onto your confession of faith. Don't change it. In light of and in spite of what you see, hear, or experience with your physical senses, stand flatfooted and boldly declare what the Word says is true about you.

DO YOU KNOW JESUS?

We Invite You to make Jesus Christ the Lord of your life by praying this prayer.

"O Lord God, I come to You in the name of Jesus Christ. I believe with all my heart in Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God. I believe He died for me and that You raised Him from the dead. I believe He is alive today. I confess with my mouth that Jesus Christ is the Lord of my life from this day. Through Him, and in His name, I have eternal life. I am born again! Thank You, Lord, for saving my soul! I am now a child of God. Hallelujah!"

CONGRATULATIONS! You are now a child of God.
