OVERFLOW 2

FROM BLURRED SIGHT TO MIRACLE VISION

FOR OVER 40 YEARS, JOSHUA ANTHONY LIVED IN A WORLD BLURRED BY IMPAIRED VISION. EVERY WORD ON A PAGE, EVERY STREET SIGN, EVERY DETAIL OF LIFE WAS SOFTENED INTO FOG. GLASSES HAD BEEN HIS CONSTANT COMPANION, YET EVEN THEY COULD ONLY DO SO MUCH.

“I thought this would be my reality forever,” Joshua recalls. “Life was always at a distance, through a haze. I had adapted, but I longed for freedom.”

A Life Through a Lens

Joshua’s impaired vision shaped his life in ways few could see. Reading, navigating streets, even recognizing faces—each day required vigilance.

Despite routine check-ups and corrective lenses, the blur persisted, a constant companion to frustration and limitation.

“I had learned to live around my eyesight, but every day was a reminder of what I couldn’t see,” he admits.

Faithful From Afar

For years, Joshua followed GoodNewsWorld Zoom services from Indonesia as a faithful partner. He witnessed miracles online, gave faithfully, and nurtured hope, yet he longed for a personal encounter—a moment where faith met presence. When he learned of the healing services at the Harare Hippodrome in Zimbabwe, he knew it was time. It was his chance to step from the screen into reality, from expectation into experience.

Arrival at the Hippodrome

The Hippodrome was alive with anticipation. Thousands of believers filled the hall; lights shimmered; the atmosphere pulsed with expectancy. Joshua felt the energy wrap around him, electric and overwhelming. “I had been part of the ministry online for years, but being here, in person, the anticipation hit me like a wave,” he says.

The Moment of Healing

Joshua, still wearing his glasses, waited as Prophet Uebert Angel approached. The Prophet laid his hands directly on Joshua’s eyes. In that instant, forty years of blur and limitation vanished. Joshua felt the power of God coursing through him, a wave of clarity washing over every corner of his vision.

“I blinked, rubbed my eyes, and everything was different,” Joshua says, his voice filled with awe. “I could see clearly—truly, completely. My world had come into focus for the first time in forty years. I got normal eyes and have healed completely. I don’t use glasses again because I see a miracle through my father, Prophet Uebert Angel. So I thank you, my father and my mother Prophetess BeBe Angel, and everyone at the Harare Hippodrome. Good news to you.”

Every detail became vivid—the words on banners, expressions in the crowd, the subtle movements across the hall. Glasses were no longer necessary; clarity was immediate. Decades of corrective lenses and gradual adjustment had failed, but a moment of faith accomplished what medicine could not.

Medical Confirmation

- Joshua’s miraculous restoration wasn’t just felt—it was verified:
- Rapid Eye Test: Immediate visual improvement noted by medical staff.
- Snellen Chart Test: 20/20 vision confirmed without spectacles.
- Patient Feedback: Joshua could identify objects and read text effortlessly.
- Observation Without Spectacles: Full visual acuity restored; he could navigate and interact freely.

A Life Reborn

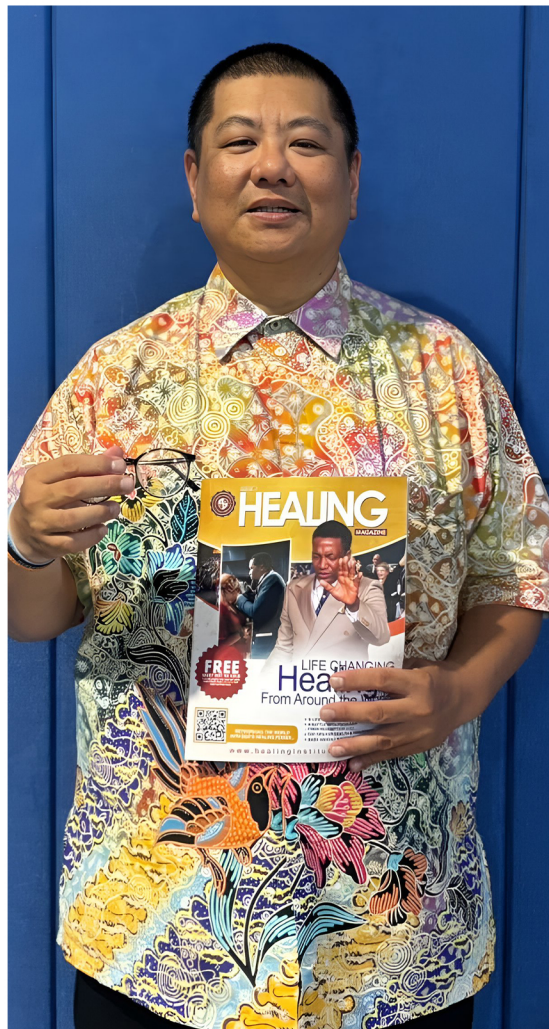

Today, Joshua moves through life unrestricted, seeing the world with vivid clarity. Colors, textures, and faces—everything comes into sharp focus, every day a new revelation.

“Walking through the doors afterward, I felt like I had stepped into a new world,” he says. “Life was alive. Everything was sharp, vivid, and mine to explore without limitation.”

A Message to the World

“To anyone struggling with limitations, whether in health, vision, or life: do not give up hope,” Joshua urges. “Faith bridges distance. Healing can happen in a single moment of encounter.”

Joshua Anthony’s journey reminds us that miracles are both experienced and verified—a convergence of medical confirmation and divine intervention.

One Minute Testimonies

Julian was born with a Severe Medical Condition called bilateral cryptorchidism, a medical condition in which both testes are not descended into the scrotum at birth. Normally, testes descend within the first 3–6 months of life, and if this does not happen, spontaneous descent in later childhood is extremely unlikely.

As he grew older, the condition worsened, bringing urinary obstruction and daily discomfort. Doctors could monitor but offered no permanent solution. Years passed. Hope faded. Life felt limited, and the future uncertain. Then came the Global Family Deliverance Service with Prophet Uebert Angel. The atmosphere was charged with expectancy. Prayer was made for Julian, and he received a church wristband prayed over by the Ra'ah. And then, something extraordinary happened. Slowly, miraculously, both testes descended into the scrotum, clearly visible for the first time in his life. A moment that had seemed impossible from birth had become reality in an instant. Doctors examined Julian over a period of 3 weeks and confirmed the miracle. Normal testicular positioning and complete healing. Julian's story is proof that God's power is greater than any limitation, medical condition, or years of struggle. A strange miracle was seen in their family. What seemed permanent can be undone. What seemed impossible can become reality. From birth to breakthrough, from limitation to liberation, Julian's life stands as a living testament: God heals, restores, and transforms

For six years,
I lived with a condition that silently robbed me
of my confidence,
my joy, and my dignity.

I suffered from persistent abnormal vaginal discharge copious, foul-smelling, and accompanied by intense itchiness. No matter what I did, it would not stop. I bathed up to three times a day, hoping for relief that never came. I tried herbal remedies. I visited doctors. Nothing worked.

The condition crushed my self-esteem. I constantly worried about wet underwear and odor. I avoided people. I stayed at home. Slowly, depression crept in, and with it, hopelessness.

Then came Exodus Night. When the year was declared The Year of the Strange Oil, I felt something move within me—from my head through my entire body. Faith was stirred again. Hope, long buried, began to rise. When the Man of God touched me, I fell under the power of God. And when I stood up, I felt something I had not felt in six years dryness. I was examined immediately by the medical team, and they confirmed it: I was completely dry, no discharge, no itchiness, no odor. In an instant, six years of suffering ended.

Today, I stand as a living witness of the power of God and the reality of the Strange Oil. My confidence has been restored. My dignity has returned. My life is renewed. I am forever grateful to the Raah for agreeing to be used by God in such a mighty way.

Mother & Child Rescued At The Edge of Life

In May 2025, within a leading women’s and neonatal care center in Doha, Qatar, a mother and her newborn stood at the very edge of life. What unfolded over the following weeks would become a testimony not of denial of medicine—but of life preserved and healing begun where human expectation was minimal.

When Life Began in Crisis

Oluwayemisi Ruth Ighodaro, a 34-year-old first-time mother, was admitted at 39+ weeks of pregnancy in active labor. What was expected to be a routine delivery rapidly evolved into a medical emergency. Failure to progress, suspected chorioamnionitis, and signs of infection necessitated an emergency caesarean section.

Intraoperative findings revealed thick meconium-stained fluid and evidence of infection. Postoperatively, her condition deteriorated further—persistent fever, rising inflammatory markers, and imaging that revealed multiple large pelvic and abdominal abscesses. Cultures later confirmed Pseudomonas aeruginosa. She developed puerperal sepsis and required a second, extensive surgery: exploratory laparotomy, drainage of abscesses, uterine reconstruction, and peritoneal lavage. At the same time, her newborn entered life in a profoundly critical state.

A Newborn Given a Grave Prognosis

The baby was born with no detectable heart rate for 17 minutes, requiring prolonged cardiopulmonary resuscitation, intubation, epinephrine, and metabolic correction. Apgar scores were recorded as 1 – 0 – 0 – 5. Blood gases revealed severe metabolic acidosis (pH < 6.8, lactate 10).

The diagnosis list grew heavy:

- Severe birth asphyxia
- Meconium aspiration syndrome
- Persistent pulmonary hypertension of the newborn
- Hypoxic-ischemic encephalopathy (HIE)
- Recurrent neonatal seizures

Continuous brain monitoring showed burst suppression, a marker of severe cerebral injury. From a clinical standpoint, the prognosis was extremely poor.

Faith in the Midst of Intensive Care

During this period, as an act of faith—not as a medical intervention—the Healing Institute wristband was placed on both mother and baby, accompanied by prayer and the application of oil anointed by Prophet Angel. Medical treatment continued uninterrupted. Antibiotics were escalated. Anticonvulsants were administered. Surgeries were performed. Intensive monitoring never ceased. Yet, alongside this, faith stood firm.

Observable Change, Documented Improvement

What followed was not an instant reversal, but something no less profound.

In the newborn:

Heart activity stabilized and remained sustained. Seizures, once recurrent and uncontrolled, came under control with treatment.

Brain monitoring evolved from burst suppression to a discontinuous pattern, with notes documenting a “better CNS examination.” Respiratory and cardiovascular stability improved.

Against early expectations, the baby survived the NICU course and was discharged alive.

In The Mother:

Persistent fever resolved following abscess drainage and antibiotic escalation.

Extensive intra-abdominal infection cleared.

The uterus was reconstructed despite necrotic tissue and adhesions. She regained strength, ambulated, tolerated oral intake, and was discharged clinically stable.

These were not assumptions. They were documented observations, recorded by specialist teams across obstetrics, intensive care, and neonatology.

Healing Institute Medical Perspective

From a Healing Institute doctors’ assessment:

“Both mother and child were facing life-threatening conditions with exceptionally poor prognostic indicators. The subsequent stabilization, survival, and measurable improvement exceeded what would reasonably be expected from the initial clinical presentation. These changes are objectively documented.”

This testimony does not claim the absence of medical care. On the contrary—it honors it. But it also recognizes something more.

Faith and Medicine, Not in Opposition

The Healing Institute does not position faith against medicine. We recognize medicine as a tool, and faith as a source of life, hope, and divine intervention.

In this case, life was preserved, and healing began, where loss seemed imminent.

This testimony stands not as exaggeration, but as truth:

A verifiable miracle, indelibly etched in clinical evidence.

We give glory to God for life sustained, and gratitude to the medical teams whose skill and perseverance walked hand in hand with faith.

Healing continues. Testimony lives.

WHEN SOUND RETURNED OVERNIGHT

There is a moment in life when the world sounds like prayer again.

For five years, Sister Yemurai lived with diminished hearing. At first, it was only subtle: the whisper of conversation seemed distant, voices muffled. Over time it went from mild annoyance to life-altering reality. Family members repeated themselves. Loved ones raised their voices. In social situations, she was misunderstood as inattentive or rude. Job interviews became stress tests in confidence and communication. Hearing loss is not merely sensory—it is relational. It affects identity, participation, and dignity.

A Medical Reality That Became Daily Strain

Doctors diagnosed reduced hearing, especially in her right ear, and referred her to an Ear, Nose, and Throat (ENT) specialist for further evaluation. In clinical terms, a referral indicates that simple measures have been exhausted and a more specialized intervention is needed. For many, this path involves imaging studies, audiometric testing, and sometimes surgical procedures. But in the interim between diagnosis and intervention, each day without clear sound became a reminder of limitation.

Thank you so much,
Raah. You are a true Man of God.

Faith, Expectation, and the Choice to Believe

Rather than surrender to silence, Sister Yemurai made a decision grounded in both faith and expectancy. She travelled from Masvingo to Harare to attend the Exodus Night and registered with the Healing Institute, a global ministry connected to Spirit Embassy and led by Prophet Uebert Angel—a ministry dedicated to manifesting the healing power of God as expressed in Matthew 10:8, “Heal the sick...” and by extension bringing physical restoration alongside spiritual hope.

Her hope was not wishful thinking—it was anchored in expectation and readiness to meet with God.

The Encounter That Changed the Ear

During the healing ministration, Prophet Uebert Angel touched her. At the moment, she thought nothing had changed—no rush of emotion, no instant sensation. But as she was taken to the medical desk for routine testing, something unmistakable occurred:

She could no longer stand at first—she felt the anointing’s weight. When she stood up fully, the sound flowed back into her ear. The ringing, the distortion, the gap—gone. Instantly. Completely. This is not slow improvement. This is restoration.

Medical Confirmation

Following the encounter, testing was carried out on the spot. With her right ear temporarily closed, she responded accurately to all sound cues, questions, and speech—demonstrating that auditory function had returned in real time. From a medical perspective, an abrupt recovery of long-standing hearing impairment without medication or surgery is outside conventional expectation. From a faith perspective, it mirrors biblical accounts of instantaneous healing where physiology responds at the moment of divine intervention.

Faith Meets Function

Christian theology and medical observation do not have to conflict. Healing that defies expected timelines does not negate medicine; it expands the narrative of human experience. Sister Yemurai did not reject her medical referral—she trusted God above and beyond it. Her healing was not psychological placebo. It was observable, functional, and objectively verified in a clinical setting.

A Life Restored

Her first phone call after ministration was to her mother. The excitement was palpable: “I can hear clearly!” No raised voices. No repetition. No miscommunication.

Hearing had returned—and with it came restored confidence, restored identity, and restored connection to community.

A Word to the Reader

If you are reading this while carrying your own silent struggle—whether physical, emotional, or spiritual—remember this: limitation is not the final word. Distance is not a barrier. Expectation aligned with faith can invite encounter. The Healing Institute exists to network the world with God’s healing power—believing that supernatural restoration today is possible even when the prognosis felt long.

Her Encouragement

“Stop doubting. Register with the Healing Institute. Come and experience the healing power of God through Prophet Uebert Angel. He is a true man of God.”

“Thank you so much, Raah. You are a true Man of God.”

1 MINUTE EXODUS NIGHT TESTIMONIES

Piles Disappear

My name is Luckymore from Zimbabwe. For 30 years, I suffered from hemorrhoids, also known as piles. The condition worsened over time, and I had to live with severe pain every day. The piles would protrude outside my body, and doctors told me that surgery was the only solution. I refused to give up. When I heard about the Exodus Night and the ministry of Prophet Uebert Angel, I knew I had to be there. I prepared myself, anticipating my healing. When the man of God prayed for me, I felt the power of God, and I knew I was healed. I fell under the power, crying tears of joy and gratitude. After the prayer, I went for a medical check-up, and the results were astonishing. The hemorrhoids had shrunk, and the pain was gone. The doctors were amazed, asking where the hemorrhoids had gone. I'm thrilled to testify that I'm healed, and I'm no longer living with constant pain. I'm grateful to God for this strange miracle in the year of the strange oil. This healing has changed my life, and I'm thankful to Prophet Uebert Angel for being a vessel for God's power. I'm a new person, and I'll never forget this miracle.

Chest Pain Disappears

For four long years, Tsitsi lived under the shadow of relentless chest pains. Each day carried discomfort, and each night arrived with uncertainty. In the Year of the Strange Oil, she made a deliberate journey of faith to meet Prophet Uebert Angel.

She attended the Exodus night and during prayer, something remarkable happened. The pain that had been a constant companion for years vanished in an instant, as though it had never existed. Today, Tsitsi lives free from chest pain. Her heart overflows with thanksgiving to God, and she openly encourages others battling illness to come and witness what God can do through His servant, the Highly Esteemed Prophet Uebert Angel.

Back & Abdominal Pain Healed

For seventeen years, my body was my enemy. My back screamed with every step. My abdomen throbbed relentlessly. Pain was my constant companion. Doctors offered words. Scans were too expensive. Painkillers barely whispered relief before agony returned. I had accepted a life chained to suffering. My friend told me about the exodus in Zimbabwe and how miracles, signs and wonders always happen in the Iconic Harare Hippodrome. I made it a priority to visit this place because I was tired of the way I was living. When we arrived, I stepped into the hall, heart pounding, limbs stiff, hope nearly gone. I noticed that the air was electric, people crying, laughing, worshipping. I tried to brace myself, but nothing could prepare me for what was coming. The Man of God approached. Without a word, he touched the exact spot where pain had lived for seventeen years. The moment his hand rested on me, a surge of energy struck. My body trembled uncontrollably.

I was drunk in the Spirit, unable to stand, overcome by the weight of God's presence. And then it happened—pain evaporated.

Seventeen years gone in an instant. I bent, I ran, I lifted, and my body responded as if reborn. Energy I had forgotten surged through me. I am no longer "Mrs. Bad Back." I am Martha—healed, restored, alive. The Strange Oil, the anointing, the power of God is real in this house. Thank you so much Prophet Uebert Angel.

Testicular Pain Healed

For three years, I had lived in silent torment. Every step, every movement, brought a stabbing pain that refused to relent. Doctors shrugged. Friends and family doubted me. I felt invisible, dismissed, trapped in a body that had turned against me. I suffered 3 years with testicular pain. As I was scrolling online I came across Prophet Uerbert Angel's Ministry and I saw many testimonies including a similar case to mine that happened during goodnews Zambia in 2025. I knew I had to come to Zimbabwe and attend the exodus night. My heart raced as I saw the man of God approaching me, the air seemed to thicken. As his hand touched me, I felt a surge of power rip through my body lightning, fire, and ice all at once. The medical team examined me and there was a remarkable difference, there was no pain. . Normally, even the slightest touch would bring unbearable pain. But now, nothing. Three years of despair evaporated in an instant.

I am grateful to God for this strange miracle, made possible by the strange oil. Pain is not something to be taken lightly and I am living proof that God cares about us. Thank you God for healing me. Im free.

Persistent ringing in the ear and intense itchiness Gone (Tinnitus)

My name is Elizabeth, and I'm from South Africa. For two years, I suffered from a persistent ringing in my ears and intense itchiness all over my body. It was a debilitating condition that affected every aspect of my life. I would scratch uncontrollably, and it was so severe that I would avoid public places, including church and work, because I was ashamed of my appearance.

I sought medical attention, but the doctors couldn't find the cause. Despite their efforts, I continued to suffer. That's when I decided to attend the Exodus Night and register for healing at the Healing Institute. During the ministration, the man of God prayed for me, and in that instant, I felt the ringing stop, and the itchiness disappeared. I'm overwhelmed with joy and gratitude, knowing that I'm healed. I can finally live a normal life without the constant scratching and embarrassment. I'm so thankful to God for this miracle and for the power of the strange oil. I won't take this healing for granted. Thank you, Lord Jesus, for your goodness and mercy. I'm celebrating this new chapter in my life, free from the burden of itchiness and ringing in my ears."

Knee Pain Disappeared Instantly

For eight long years, pain dictated the rhythm of my life.

What began as left knee pain slowly became a prison. Each day was marked by discomfort, limitation, and emotional distress. My efficiency at work declined so severely that I nearly lost my job on medical grounds. Social gatherings became a burden rather than a joy walking, standing, even simple movement aggravated the pain.

I tried everything. Painkillers of all kinds became my daily companions, until even they stopped working. Eventually, I resigned myself to what I believed was my fate: a life managed around pain.

Then I saw the advertisement for Exodus Night 2025 in Harare, Zimbabwe. With the little hope I had left, I decided to attend. I registered for the Healing Institute, not knowing that this single decision would rewrite my story. The moment I entered the prophetic environment, I sensed something different. The atmosphere was charged, alive with faith, expectancy, and the tangible presence of God.

When the Man of God came to where I was, something inside me broke loose. I could not contain my joy. I jumped with anticipation and in that very moment, the pain vanished. Just like that, eight years of constant knee pain disappeared instantly. When the medical team examined me, it was as though I was a completely different person. No pain. No restriction. Total freedom. Sometimes we take good health for granted. But after years of suffering, simply walking without pain feels like a miracle beyond words. Living pain-free is now my greatest testimony. The Strange Oil worked for me. I stand healed, restored, and ready to perform my alien task in 2026.

Thank you, Raah, for answering the call of God. You are truly a blessing to us all.

WHEN SILENCE MET STRANGE OIL

AS THE FINAL SECONDS OF 2025 DISSOLVED INTO ETERNITY, THE ATMOSPHERE AT THE HIPPODROME IN HARARE SHIFTED UNMISTAKABLY. THIS WAS NOT MERELY A CROSSOVER INTO A NEW CALENDAR YEAR. IT WAS AN ENTRANCE INTO A PROPHETIC SEASON LONG AWAITED.

2026 had been declared The Year of Strange Oil.

On this historic Exodus Night, The Highly Esteemed Prophet Uebert Angel, Commander-In-Chief of The GoodNewsWorld, stood under an open prophetic mantle and announced a year defined not by normalcy, but by divine otherness.

Quoting Isaiah 28:21, the Prophet declared:

“The Lord will rise up as He did at Mount Perazim,
He will rouse Himself as in the Valley of Gibeon — to do His work, His strange work, and perform His task, His alien task.”

What followed was not theory. It was demonstration.

And among the first lives to visibly carry the mark of this “strange work” was Michael Katana from Uganda.

Ten Years Under The Rule of Silence

For a decade, Michael’s life had been governed by progressive hearing loss in both ears. What began as a mild inconvenience slowly evolved into a debilitating condition. For the last five years, hearing aids were not optional — they were essential. Medical consultations provided management, not restoration.

Silence became routine. Communication required effort. Life adjusted downward.

Yet faith was rising.

Michael had followed the ministry of Prophet Uebert Angel for years, witnessing documented healings across continents through the Healing Institute. Testimony after testimony ignited expectation. “I knew God could heal,” Michael later said. “I had seen Him do it for others.”

Exodus Night: A Prophetic Collision

On 31 December 2025, Michael entered the Hippodrome still wearing hearing aids, but carrying something stronger than medical history — faith aligned with a prophetic season.

As Prophet Uebert Angel ministered healing under a charged atmosphere, a call was made for hearing conditions. Michael responded. The Prophet immediately identified the issue and instructed him to remove the hearing aid. As prayer was released, hearing was restored instantly. Sound returned without adjustment. Voices became clear without delay. What ten years of medical intervention could not reverse happened in a moment. Before the congregation and a global audience, Prophet Uebert Angel removed the hearing aid himself — a visible seal that the condition had ended. This was not improvement. This was restoration. It was the first unmistakable sign that the Year of Strange Oil had begun.

The Strange Work Confirmed

Days later, Michael appeared on Atmosphere for Healing (AFH) — the Healing Institute’s global platform where testimonies are tested, verified, and recorded.

During the AFH broadcast:

- He responded instantly to spoken questions
- He demonstrated clear, unaided hearing
- He confirmed he had not used hearing aids since Exodus Night

“What doctors could not do in ten years, God did in a moment,” Michael testified.

The miracle was not emotional, suggestive, or delayed. It was verifiable, documented, and sustained.

Alien Results In Human Bodies

The prophetic language of 2026 is clear. This is a year where God is not repeating familiar patterns. The declaration was bold:

We will think differently.

We will move differently.

We will experience God differently.

Not metaphorically — experientially.

Michael’s testimony stands as evidence of what Prophet Uebert Angel described as “alien work” — outcomes that defy logic, timelines, and medical expectation.

The strange oil did not manage hearing loss. It ended it.

A Testimony For The Nations

Through Healing Institute of Spirit Embassy, Michael’s healing has now been archived, broadcast, and released to the nations — fulfilling the divine mandate given to Prophet Uebert Angel:

“Network the world with God’s healing power.”

Exodus Night 2025 will be remembered not only as a prophetic declaration, but as a documented beginning.

As 2026 unfolds, Michael’s restored hearing stands as a living witness that God has indeed risen to perform His strange work — and humanity is watching.

Sense of Taste Restored

For two years, life had lost its flavor. Food was joyless. My sense of taste was gone. Doctors said, “Wait it may return.” Remedies failed. I was losing hope. At Exodus Night 2025, the Man of God called those suffering from loss of taste to step forward and pass through his shadow. Hesitant but desperate, I moved forward. The moment I passed through, the power of God slammed into me like a tidal wave. I fell under the anointing, overwhelmed by the force of His presence. When I stood, the medical team tested me. I could taste everything – perfectly, instantly. Two years of deprivation vanished in seconds. Joy, gratitude, and disbelief overwhelmed me. God’s Strange Oil, His anointing, and His miraculous power had restored my life completely. I had been reborn into a world of flavor, vitality, and thanksgiving.

A Miracle Walk

For sixteen years, she could not walk. Born with club foot, every step required support. Standing alone was impossible. Physiotherapy was a constant part of life, but progress was painfully slow. Doctors had warned that she might never walk independently. Hope was fragile.

Then came the year of the Strange Oil during the service – accessing the highest dimensions of power, everything changed. During praise and worship, a remarkable moment unfolded. Witnesses saw her dancing on her own for the first time in her life without assistance, without support, completely free.

Her mother recalled how even before birth, doctors had observed abnormal positioning, predicting limitations in mobility. Yet on this day, those predictions were obliterated. In the presence of God, impossibility became reality. The crowd erupted as the miracle unfolded. Tears flowed. Hearts were stirred. No human hand had touched her, only God moved in the atmosphere, filling the room with His power. Every eye saw it. Every heart believed. Sixteen years of limitation, struggle, and dependence ended in a single, supernatural moment. Today, she walks. She dances. She runs. A living testament that nothing is impossible for God.

The lesson is clear: miracles are real. God’s power is present. And He delights in showing the world that what was impossible can happen in an instant.

Severe Chest Pain Finally Lets Go

Pain does not always arrive loudly. Sometimes it settles in quietly, then rearranges your life without asking permission. For five years, my body carried a sentence it never explained—severe chest pain that followed me into work, into sleep, into thought.

For five years, my body carried a sentence it never explained—severe chest pain that followed me into work, into sleep, into thought. I am a construction worker. My profession is built on strength, balance, and endurance. Steel does not wait for weakness. Concrete does not accommodate pain. Yet every day, my body negotiated against my responsibilities.

What began as discomfort matured into restriction. Restriction matured into loss.

I learned to sleep only on one side of my body, night after night, year after year. Rest became fractured. Mornings began already exhausted. At work, I moved from lifting to supervising—not by promotion, but by limitation. Income shrank. Anxiety expanded. Pain, I learned, is never solitary; it travels with fear and uncertainty as constant companions.

Chest pain is not something one ignores. I sought medical help. I complied. I waited. Medication came and went. Relief did not.

Eventually, pain stops asking for attention and begins demanding surrender.

Expectation Is Not Optimism.

It Is Alignment

When I travelled from Lusaka to Harare for the Exodus Night, I was not chasing an emotional experience. I was not desperate. I was decided.

I registered with the Healing Institute carrying expectation—quiet, resolved, and settled. Expectation is often misunderstood as excitement. It is not. Expectation is agreement. It is the inward decision that something will change.

I had resolved this: when Prophet Uebert Angel entered the arena, my condition would end. There was no countdown in my spirit. No drama. Only certainty.

When the Prophet ministered and touched me, the moment was simple. No spectacle. No collapse. No noise. And yet, something unmistakable happened. I felt a dense heaviness—like smoke compressed into weight—lift from my chest and leave. The pressure vanished.

The pain vanished.

Not faded.

Not reduced.

Gone.

When the Body Confirms What the Spirit Knows

Healing reveals itself not by what disappears alone, but by what returns. That night, I slept deeply—on the side I had avoided for five years. There was no hesitation, no guarding, no pain. Strength followed. Confidence followed. Movement returned without negotiation.

Doctors examined me afterward. There was nothing to manage. Nothing to treat. Nothing to explain. From a medical perspective, the abrupt resolution of chronic chest pain without pharmacological or surgical intervention is rare and notable. From a faith perspective, it is unmistakable.

From a human perspective, it is simple: I am well.

To the One Still Living With Pain

If you are reading this while carrying pain—pain that has lasted so long it feels normal—hear this without decoration: your condition has not outlived God's power.

Whether your body has learned limitation, whether medicine has stabilized but not restored you, whether distance, finances, or fatigue have delayed you—none of these are barriers.

Healing is not constrained by geography. It does not require proximity. It responds to alignment.

Pain may have rewritten your routines. It has not rewritten your future.

Honour, Without Excess

I give sincere thanks to Prophet Uebert Angel for yielding himself as a vessel through which God continues to heal lives across continents. There is dignity in consistency, and grace in obedience. Sir, I honour the grace upon your life—Raah.

This is not a story about pain.

It is a record of release.

And release, once given, does not negotiate its return.

Fifty-Two Years without Scent Ended by Prophet Angel's Shadow

For fifty two years, Cecilia Fero lived in a world without scent. Born with anosmia, the inability to smell, her life unfolded without the invisible fragrances that quietly shape everyday experiences. While others spoke fondly of perfumes, flowers, rain soaked earth, or the comforting aroma of home cooked meals, Cecilia could only imagine these sensations. She relied on family and friends to choose perfumes for her and accepted, with quiet resignation, that some parts of life would always remain beyond her reach. That long standing reality changed during the Exodus Night with Prophet Uebert Angel.

When the Ra'ah made a call for everyone without a sense of smell to pass through his shadow, something stirred within Cecilia. Hope, which had long been buried beneath years of acceptance, suddenly rose. She stood up in faith and expectation and walked past the shadow. In that very moment, she fell under the power, unaware that her life was about to turn a page she had never thought possible.

As she regained awareness, something extraordinary happened. Cecilia reached for perfume testers nearby. For the first time in her entire life, she could smell. What had once been an empty silence suddenly became a symphony. Scents unfolded one after another, each carrying depth, character, and emotion. Overwhelmed with joy, she began to smell different fragrances, marveling at a world that had been hidden from her since birth.

The miracle did not stop there. Cecilia soon noticed that even food tasted richer and more complete. Flavors she had known all her life now carried fullness and warmth. Her senses had finally found harmony. What medicine could not do in five decades, God accomplished in a moment.

With a grateful heart, Cecilia gives glory to the God our father, Prophet Uebert Angel. She testifies that this miracle restored more than a physical sense. It revived hope. For many years, she had quietly accepted that she would never experience the world of smells. Yet in this Year of Strange Oil, she says God defied limitations and rewrote her story.

She expresses deep appreciation to Prophet Uebert Angel for being the vessel God used to deliver her miracle. Today, Cecilia stands as living proof that no condition is too old, no situation too permanent, and no hope too lost for God.

Restored Without the Knife But Strange Oil

For a year, Tinei from Zimbabwe lived under the heavy shadow of prostate enlargement with bladder outlet obstruction. What began as discomfort gradually became a daily ordeal. Urination was painful, slow, and exhausting, turning a basic human function into a constant reminder of his condition.

As the months passed, the situation worsened until medical intervention became unavoidable. Doctors inserted a urinary catheter, which he lived with for two months. He was scheduled for prostate surgery. The thought of the operation filled him with fear and deep emotional distress.

At the lowest point of this journey, hope came from an unexpected direction. Tinei recalled hearing about Prophet Uebert Angel, a man of God, through whose hands, thousands had been delivered and healed. With faith rising in his heart, he made the decision to attend the Exodus Season and obtained the Strange Oil which he anointed himself with. Unbeknownst to him, this simple act would quietly rewrite his story.

The following Monday, Tinei went to Karanda Hospital prepared for surgery. The atmosphere was clinical, final, and which caused him even more distress. Before proceeding, the medical team repeated their tests and what followed left the doctors stunned. The prostate that had caused months of suffering had returned to normal size. There was no obstruction. There was no justification for surgery. The catheter was removed, and the operation was immediately cancelled.

In that moment, fear gave way to awe. What medicine had prepared to correct with a blade, God had already healed. Tinei understood that he had witnessed a Strange Miracle, one that could not be explained by timelines or treatment plans.

Today, he lives free from the burden that once controlled his life. Gratitude fills his testimony as he honors Prophet Uebert Angel for answering the call of God and serving as a vessel through whom this miracle manifested. Above all, Tinei gives thanks to the Lord Jesus Christ, declaring with confidence that this truly is the Year of Strange Oil, marked by undeniable and life changing miracles.

SEVEN YEARS IN CHAINS

A Life Bound by Pain

Good news to you all! My name is Brave Mabena, and for seven long years, I lived a life shackled by pain. Every step was measured. Every movement, a silent battle.

It began quietly—a twinge in my knees, a subtle stiffness I thought I could ignore. But soon, the pain spread like wildfire, claiming every joint, every corner of my body. Walking, bending, even sitting became an ordeal. Doctors told me the truth I feared most: arthritis had invaded my joints, and joint replacement—or worse, amputation—might be inevitable.

Friends guided me to sangomas, promising relief through rituals and charms. I traveled from one healer to another, chasing hope, but every visit ended the same: disappointment, frustration, and worsening pain.

Years passed. Life became a series of compromises. Jobs were harder, social gatherings more isolating, and every day felt like a battle I could never win. I felt trapped, desperate, almost ready to surrender.

Exodus Night 2025 - The Night Everything Changed

Then came Exodus Night 2025 at the Healing Institute in Harare, Zimbabwe. The energy in the hall was electric. A hush of expectation fell over the crowd. I remember my heart pounding—part fear, part hope—because I had learned one thing: miracles are rare, and pain can feel eternal.

When Prophet Uebert Angel approached me, everything changed. With a simple, deliberate touch, he laid his hands on me. Seven years of relentless pain exploded into freedom. The stiffness in my joints vanished. Movements I hadn't performed in years—bending, twisting, even lifting my arms—were suddenly effortless.

I could hardly breathe. I could hardly believe it. My body, which had been a prison, was now free. Seven years of suffering, gone in a single instant.

The Back Pain That Would Not Quit

But life wasn't done testing me. Years of manual labor had left me with chronic, debilitating back pain. Every day, the pain slowed me. My employers noticed my lagging pace, colleagues assumed laziness—but behind the scenes, every movement was agony.

I knew I had to act. I registered with the Healing Institute, my heart heavy with expectation but full of faith. And once again, Prophet Uebert Angel's hands brought instant relief. The pain evaporated. I could move freely, bend, and twist without restriction. My body, once a battlefield, was now a temple of restoration.

A Miracle Beyond Explanation

From a medical perspective, this kind of instantaneous healing defies logic. Seven years of chronic arthritis and back pain, gone in moments, without surgery, medication, or therapy. From a spiritual perspective, it is nothing short of a divine miracle.

It reminded me that healing is not gradual—it can be sudden, complete, and life-transforming. All it takes is faith, presence, and a touch from the hand of God.

A Word to the Suffering

To anyone who reads this: do not suffer in silence. Do not settle for compromise or false hope. Healing is real. It is available tonight, right now, through faith and divine ministry.

Seven years of pain taught me patience, but Exodus Night 2025 taught me something far greater: miracles are real, and your life can change in an instant.

To Prophet Uebert Angel:

Your obedience to God's call has restored my health, renewed my spirit, and reignited my hope. May the Lord continue to protect and increase you, and may countless others encounter His miraculous power through your hands.
